Airman Injured In Stolen Car Wreck

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman was in Letterman Army Hospital today with fractured ribs after he grabbed a Petaluma woman from her parked automobile, drove off in the car, then crashed it as he attempted to escape police.
Condition of A/B Sidney B. Howell, 21, of the 78th Transportation Squadron was reported as good at the hospital in San Francisco.
Howell was supposedly restricted to the base at Hamilton as punishment for an infraction of squadron rules when he appeared in Petaluma Friday night.
Petaluma police said he dragged Mrs. Fallay Goss from her parked automobile near a drive-in cafe, leaped into the car and drove away.

Mrs. Goss ran to the drive-in and enlisted the aid of a patron to pursue the fleeing airman. The chase was soon joined by officers Donald Gale and Thomas Kasovich, who saw the fleeing car run a stop light at high speed.
As the police car roared in pursuit, Howell stepped up the speed of the getaway car to 85 miles per hour, the officers reported.
At 835 Thompson lane, he crashed into the car of William Diesher, parked in front of Diesher's home. Both the Diesher car and Mrs. Goss's auto were total wrecks.
The young airman was taken to Petaluma General Hospital and from there to Letterman.

Alaska Fields Aren't Greener, Man Learns

Aleigh Sewell, 36, who quit his post as head of Marin County's data processing bureau to take a better-paying post in Alaska last June, wants to return to Marin.
Reports trickling back to Marin indicate that the 50th state has not been satisfactory for Sewell and his family.
Sewell was getting $7,600 per year as chief of Marin's data processing bureau, working under County Auditor Leon A. deLisle. In June, he went to Alaska on a job paying about $11,000 per year. John L. Gibb took over as head of data processing in Marin.
Auditor deLisle said Sewell wrote asking whether there is an opening in Marin at this time.
Sewell reported his work is such that on occasion, he works from 3 or 4 a.m. to 7 p.m. His family has seen the sun only about seven days during the past three months, he reported.
Residents in Juneau dare not go out on hikes in the hills without a heavy rifle because of ferocious bears, according to Sewell.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors was to meet today to decide whether Sewell should be re-hired by the county.
Ike Summons Steel Leaders
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower today summoned industry and union leaders to separate White House meetings Wednesday morning in an effort to end the 76-day-old steel strike.
The President acted several hours after he told a news conference that the strike "must not continue" and indicated he may invoke the Taft-Hartley Act. The President sternly declared that he was "sick and tired" of delay in settling the strike and called it an "intolerable" situation. See story on page 2.

SWELTERING WEATHER SEEN THROUGH WEEK

Bay Area residents were warned today to get ready to swelter.
The U. S. Weather Bureau forecast 80 to 88-degree temperatures for this afternoon and tomorrow. And warm weather, with dropping humidity, was predicted through Saturday, with no rain in sight.

Fair Weather Pulls Many To Outing Spots

Mild weather lured hundreds of visitors to Marin's parks and beaches and attracted large crowds to the third annual Mill Valley Fall Festival over the weekend.
The festival, sponsored by the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce, was highlighted by a Saturday night dance and the crowning of 17-year-old Virginia Lotterhand as festival queen.

CROWNED QUEEN
Virginia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lotterhand of 200 Marguerite avenue, was crowned by Roger Murphy, chairman of the event.

Stores in the downtown area were decorated with fall flowers and merchants displayed the works of local artists.

More than 5,000 persons were estimated to have visited Mt. Tamalpais State Park for a clear view of the Bay Area. Samuel P. Taylor State Park had 500 campers and picnickers, and ranger William Allisc said that the low summer water supply is now "pretty good."

TOMALES PARK
Tomaes Bay State Park played host to more than 500 persons. The weather there was sunny and warm. Hundreds more visited Muir Woods National Monument and Stinson Beach State Park.

Supt. Frederick M. Martischang at Muir Woods reported 1,928 visitors Saturday and 3,742 yesterday for a weekend total of 5,670—a large number for late September.

Sausalito police reported bumper-to-bumper traffic for a three-hour period yesterday afternoon.

5-Car Crash In Larkspur Injures Trio

A 21-year-old driver and two teen-age hitchhikers were hospitalized last night after a spectacular accident involving two moving cars and three parked vehicles near Larkspur's Blue Rock Hotel.
Police said a northbound auto driven by James Leslie Harris, of 310 Caledonia street, Sausalito, hit a car on Magnolia avenue at Ward street. Then in rapid succession, it struck two parked cars, a street sign, a stone pillar in front of the Blue Rock and a utility pole.
Reinaldo V. Vela, 39, of Larkspur, driver of the first car hit by Harris, was starting a left turn off Magnolia when the accident happened at 7:20 p.m.
The impact knocked Vela's

Parley With Nikita Ends Berlin Threat, Ike Says

IKE, SUFFERING COLD, PLANS TRIP TO DESERT

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower disclosed at his press conference today that he is suffering from a cold and plans to take a brief holiday in the western desert country as soon as he can get away.
He said he picked up the cold during his recent trip to Europe.
Eisenhower said he hopes to get away soon for about five days rest in a dry desert climate.
The President gave no hint as to when he hopes to leave for his desert stay or precisely where he will go.

Algeria Rebels Set To Negotiate Peace

TUNIS, Tunisia (UPI)—The Algerian rebel government in exile announced tonight it was ready to negotiate "immediate peace" with France.
It said it was ready to "enter discussions with the French government in order to discuss the political and military conditions of a cease-fire and the conditions and guarantees of the application of self-determination" for Algeria.
This was the rebel answer to President Charles de Gaulle's peace proposal of 12 days ago in which he offered Algeria self-determination — a choice between independence, integration with France, or self-government in close association with France.
At the same time, de Gaulle indicated Algeria might be partitioned should the majority of Algeria's one million Europeans and nine million Moslems choose independence. Today the rebels rejected any idea of partition.
The rebels did not insist on United Nations supervision of any Algerian referendum as had been expected.
However, they said that the "free choice of the Algerian people can not be "expressed under the pressure of an occupation army of more than half a million soldiers."

They also rejected de Gaulle's constitutional condition that an Algerian referendum would have to be ratified by a referendum of the people of metropolitan France.
They said this would be "The negation of self-determination and democracy."
At first glance, political observers in Paris said the rebel conditions seemed unacceptable to de Gaulle.

Election Set Tomorrow On School Merger

The question of the merger of Novato Unified School District and San Jose Elementary School District goes to the voters of the two districts for the second time tomorrow.
A total of 5,644 residents are eligible to cast their ballots in the special election: 4,401 in Novato and 1,243 in San Jose. A majority vote in each district is necessary to approve the consolidation of the two into a single unified district called the North Marin Unified School District.

DEFEATED IN JANUARY
The proposal was defeated last Jan. 13 when San Jose District voters turned it down by 202 to 136. Novato approved it overwhelmingly by a vote of 785 to 288.

Polls will be open tomorrow from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in both districts. Polling places in Novato will be at Hill, Marion, Olive avenue, West Novato and Novato High Schools, and in San Jose at Loma Verde and Lynwood Schools.

CARDS MAILED
If voters approve the merger, unification would take effect July 1, 1960. Before that date, and probably within the next two months, a seven-member board of trustees would be elected.
The county clerk has mailed polling place cards to all registered voters, and the county superintendent's office has sent them copies of arguments for and against the proposal and

President Less Rigid On Summit Talks Now

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today his talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev removed the threat of force over Berlin and cleared away most of the President's objections to a summit conference.
He also said he and Khrushchev agreed that no deadline should be set for reaching agreement on Berlin. During the negotiations, he said, "no one is under duress, no one is under any kind of threat." He said Khrushchev told him he never had intended any threat.
Summing up his impression of the Soviet leader, the President told a special news conference that Khrushchev is a "dynamic and arresting personality," whose attitude ranges from "negative" to "the most easy, affable, genial type of discussion."

Nikita Terms Talks With Ike 'Useful'

MOSCOW (UPI)—Nikita Khrushchev said on his triumphal welcome home from America today that President Eisenhower "sincerely wants to liquidate the cold war" and make friends with Russia, even if some of his aides do not. Khrushchev called the talks with Eisenhower "useful."

In a report to a cheering crowd of 20,000 in Moscow's Lenin Sports Palace, the Soviet premier gave the impression that his 13-day historic tour of the United States had been successful and a good beginning toward the solution of cold war problems. Throughout he used words like "frank" and "constructive" to describe his talks in America.

He received a hero's welcome when his huge TU114 turbo-prop airliner arrived in Moscow on the 4,986-mile flight from Andrews Air Force Base, Md.
A crowd of 500 officials greeted him at the airport and heard him exclaim, "Okay, I've been in America. But Russia is better, it is good to be home."

(For details of Khrushchev's Moscow arrival and the wind-up of his U.S. visit, see page 12.)

KIDS 'CONFER' WITH K Grandchildren, Duties Postpone Ike's Trip

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower confirmed today that his grandchildren negotiated with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in fixing next spring as the time for the President and his family to visit Russia.
The President added, however, that the press of business—the heavy schedules which confront both him and the Soviet premier in the next few weeks—contributed to the decision to postpone the visit originally scheduled for later this year.
Eisenhower was in high good humor as he discussed at his news conference the story Khrushchev told yesterday about how the trip's postponement resulted from a "conference" between himself and the "wonderful" Eisenhower grandchildren at the President's Gettysburg farm Saturday.

The President said he previously had suggested to Khrushchev that spring might be more convenient for his return visit because of his heavy schedule of activities.
Eisenhower reported that he and Khrushchev tentatively agreed on this and also took note of the fact that winter weather soon will descend on Russia and limit travel.
After this, the President said, Khrushchev talked to the grandchildren when he met them for the first time at the farm.
What Khrushchev said was perfectly true the President added with a chuckle—the premier and the grandchildren made the final decision for a visit next spring.

Ike 'Sick And Tired' Of Steel Strike, Hints T-H Action

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower sternly declared today that he is "sick and tired" of the delay in settling the steel strike and broadly hinted he may invoke the Taft-Hartley Act to end it.

He called the situation "intolerable."

The President read a special statement at his news conference, in which he said the 76-day-old walkout "must not continue." He pledged to use his personal and official influence to end it.

Asked specifically if he would seek a court injunction under the Taft-Hartley law to stop the strike, the President declined to answer at this time. But he said he hoped to see several government officials later today to discuss possible courses of action.

His promise to use both personal and official influence indicated he may be considering calling industry and union leaders to the White House. Asked about this possibility, Eisenhower again refused to discuss what specific actions he has in mind.

Daring Flight By 'Copter Saves Hunter

FRESNO (AP) — Donald C. Crowley, 30, of Fresno, was in serious condition here today after his daring rescue by an Air Force helicopter yesterday in the High Sierra.

The deer hunter was kicked in the face by a pack mule while camped with a party of hunters in a meadow 9,700 feet up on Spanish Mountain Friday.

A companion rode out to the Crown Valley ranger station, which notified the sheriff's office here. Search and Rescue Center at Hamilton Air Force Base coordinated rescue efforts, sending a high altitude turboprop jet helicopter from Edwards Air Force Base. But that chopper developed engine trouble.

The union leader broke off negotiations Friday and went home to Pittsburgh, refusing to attend a New York meeting with the industry today.

The President discussed the strike with six of his top advisers before his news conference. Among them were Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, Secretary of Commerce Frederick H. Mueller and Federal Mediation Director Joseph F. Finnegan.

'MUST NOT CONTINUE'

The President pointed out that 660,000 workers are not at their jobs because of the dispute. He declared that "this is an intolerable situation," and said, "it must not continue."

"It is up to both sides, labor and management, to recognize the responsibility they owe to our nation and settle their differences reasonably and promptly," Eisenhower said.

"I shall use every conceivable personal and official influence available to me to break the impasse."

BLAMES INDUSTRY

He charged it was the industry, not the union, which had failed in its responsibility to the nation, making "a mockery and sham out of traditional American collective bargaining."

Two Air Force captains, K. B. Hattan and George K. Butler, landed here for refueling en route from Burbank to Stead Air Force Base near Reno. They were flying an old Sikorsky that isn't supposed to be able to take off above 4,000 feet, but volunteered to try.

Hattan and Butler made it, the entire operation taking less than two hours. It would have required two days to get Crowley out on horseback.

THEY 'DRIVE' INDOORS Driving School Pupils Safe From Accidents

An adult driver-education course offered from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays at San Rafael High School is guaranteed not to involve its students in a traffic accident—at least not for the first 40 of the class's total 52 hours.

Reason: Students will do most of their driving right in the classroom—not on the busy highways and streets of Marin County, where danger lurks.

The cars they drive, however, do not have wheels, other than steering wheels. And the highways they glide over are those flashed on a screen by a movie projector. The student-drivers turn the wheel, step on the accelerator (or the brakes) as the realistic scene on the screen dictates.

In room 32 at the high school, 12 electrically operated driving units called "Drive-Trainers" take the place of classroom desks common to most other school rooms.

As students respond to the view on the screen, their errors, if any, are recorded electronically on a roll of graph paper on the instructor's desk. Students are graded accordingly.

The units are equipped with both standard and automatic gear shifts, to give the person in training the same kind of driving experience he will have when he steps into his own car.

Instructor G. H. Taylor, who operates the Marin Driving School of San Anselmo, says that before a student is graduated he first must pass the acid test. Sixteen hours are devoted to actual driving.

Registration in the class will close after Wednesday's class, said Taylor. The registration fee is $14.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed generally higher in lively trading today after a late rally rescued the list from irregularity.

Volume for the day was estimated at 2,300,000 shares compared with 3,280,000 Friday.

Pivotal issues posted gains or losses going from fractions to about a point.

American Motors recovered from an early loss of around two and was up fractionally in late dealings. Studebaker-Packard rose about a point.

U.S. Steel was off more than a point while Youngstown Sheet was about a point higher.

President Eisenhower's statement that the 76-day-old steel strike "must not continue" seemed to firm industrialists temporarily but they resumed a churning action.

Southern Pacific climbed about a point.

Losses of about a point were shown by such stocks as United Aircraft, American Cyanamid and U.S. Gypsum.

Marin Musician To Lead Jazz Group

Thompson V. Chesnut of Mill Valley, College of Marin music instructor, will conduct a 19-piece symphonic jazz ensemble Sunday at the Monterey Jazz Festival.

The group, which includes four marinites as well as four members of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, will perform "Symphony for Brass and Percussion," a modern work by Gunther Schuller, New York composer.

Marin musicians in the ensemble are Allen Willis of Kentfield and Chester L. Patnoe of San Rafael, trumpets; Virginia Ojeda of Kentfield, bassoon, and Chesnut's wife, Geraldine, French horn.

The Bay Area group will be one of six to perform at the final afternoon session of the three-day festival at Monterey fairgrounds.

Although he learned to speak Japanese as a child, Michael forgot most of it during the war, Mrs. McCaskey said. She said he had attended elementary schools in California, but went to high school in New York, and attended New York University for a year. He is the manager of the Stanford fairgrounds.

Michael McCaskey, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Selden McCaskey of 118 Palm avenue, San Rafael, is furthering his studies of Chinese after having received from Stanford last June a bachelor of arts degree with a major in Chinese.

Mrs. McCaskey said her son was born in Japan in 1937, a year after she and her husband went to live there. McCaskey, internal auditor for American President Lines, was sent there by his company. They returned to the states in 1940, and went back to Japan after World War II.

This past summer, Michael studied Japanese at Stanford under a combined Stanford and Ford Foundation grant.

NEARLY 1,200 DRUNK DRIVERS LOSE LICENSES

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Nearly 1,200 Californians have lost their drivers' licenses for six months because they had one for the road during July and August.

For all of them, it was the first time they had been convicted of drunken driving.

They were the first motorists hit by a state crackdown begun July 1 with a warning that all convicted drunk drivers would have their licenses suspended for a half-year.

Problems Of Population Growth Cited

SAN DIEGO (AP)—Explosive population growth during the next decade will challenge local government with "herculean" problems, Controller Alan Cranston warned today.

"All the genius and resourcefulness of California's local officials will be needed to overcome the challenge of the '60s," he asserted in remarks prepared for the County Assessors Assn.

While continuing to operate on the short end of the tax dollar, Cranston said, local agencies will have to provide more expensive services for a population that will grow even faster than it has in the last 10 years.

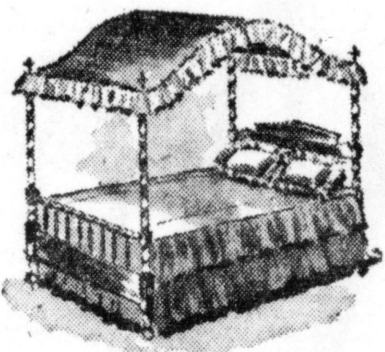

He said "space age economics" assure that the federal government will get most tax money, just as it now takes two of every three tax dollars collected in California.

But Cranston said the state will continue channeling more than half its collected revenue to local areas, where state aid has replaced property taxes as the primary means to finance budgets that totaled more than 4 billion dollars in 1958-59.

Chessman Loses New Round In Legal Fight

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Caryl Chessman, the "red light" bandit-turned best-selling author, today lost another round in his 11-year battle to escape California's death chamber.

Superior Court Judge Walter R. Evans refused to rule on Chessman's motion to set aside a court order appointing a shorthand expert to decipher notes of court reporter Ernest R. Perry.

Perry died after Chessman's trial in 1948.

Evans said he lacked jurisdiction to consider Chessman's motion because it previously had been ruled on—in October, 1958, and last July—by the state Supreme Court.

Chessman, 36, was convicted May 21, 1948, on 17 counts of kidnapping, rape and robbery. He is scheduled to die in the gas chamber at San Quentin prison on Oct. 26.

Two of the convictions carried the death penalty under the state's "Little Lindbergh" law.

Vallejo Man Denies Guilt In Knifing

Vassie Taylor, 37, of Vallejo, suspected of disemboweling a Marin City laborer at a dance last week, pleaded innocent today to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Taylor, represented by Deputy Public Defender Peter Allen Smith, demanded a jury trial. Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court set the trial for Nov. 10. It is scheduled for three days before Judge N. Charles Brusatori.

Taylor is accused of slashing the midsection of John (Spot) Times, 26, of House 763, Marin City. After the stabbing at the Marin City gymnasium, an angry crowd almost lynched Taylor before he was rescued by sheriff's deputies armed with shotguns.

Novato Woman In Palo Alto Hospital

Mrs. Ellis Perryman of 473 Wilson avenue, Novato, was taken to the Stanford Clinic in Palo Alto in a coma Saturday after she collapsed.

Mrs. Perryman had been taken to the home of her mother in Mountain View several days ago by her husband after she had suffered recurring spells of dizziness and fainting. She collapsed at 11 a.m. Saturday and was taken immediately to the Palo Alto hospital.

She had been treated by a doctor immediately following a yellow jacket sting on her leg at her Novato home two weeks ago. Hospital authorities said she was resting comfortably today, but was expected to remain in the hospital for at least a couple of days.

School Problems Will Be Aired

Members of the district board of trustees will discuss Lagunitas School's goals and problems before the PTA at 8 p.m. Thursday during "Get-Acquainted Night."

Subjects to be aired include curriculum, school finances and school housing.

Parents will meet their children's teachers and discuss curriculum goals. Mrs. Milton Johnson of Woodacre is in charge of the program.

Nursery School In Mill Valley Starts 4th Year

Tamalpais Nursery School reopened last week for its fourth year in the First Baptist Church in Mill Valley with children from 80 Mill Valley families enrolled in three sessions.

Three new staff members join three teachers who are continuing, according to Mrs. Robert Bastian, executive director. Mrs. Helen Pratt, who has a master's degree from the University of California in child psychology, starts her second year as principal. Also returning are Mrs. Rachael Hodgkinson of San Anselmo and Miss Barbara Niles of Mill Valley. New are Mrs. Randolph Keeler of Mill Valley, principal of the pre-kindergarten sessions held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons; Mrs. Joyce Saw and Mrs. Richard Nelson.

ACCIDENT

auto 120 feet north into a parked car, Police Chief Howard Clark reported.

Clark said Officer John Cottle found one of Harris' two hitchhiking passengers, Buddy Goodwin Kendall, 15, of San Anselmo, lying injured on the sidewalk in front of the Sausalito's battered car.

Sitting dazed in the front seat were Harris and the second hitchhiker, John L. Dismukes Jr., 14, of San Anselmo. The trio, all suffering from minor head injuries and multiple cuts and bruises, were taken by Marin Ambulance to Marin General Hospital.

The Kendall boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Kendall of 33 Sequoia drive, and young Dismukes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dismukes of 100 Park drive, were expected to be released from the hospital today.

The San Anselmo youths said they were returning home after a day of fishing in Sausalito when Harris gave them a lift.

Police said Vela was badly shaken up in the accident, but refused hospitalization. His home is at 30 Locust street, Larkspur.

Eyewitnesses said the Harris car was traveling through Larkspur at high rate of speed, Clark reported. He said Harris admitted he had been drinking before the accident.

The parked cars, all extensively damaged, are registered to Anthony Motta, 130 Marion drive, San Rafael; Lawrence Scott, 870 Butterfield road, San Anselmo; and Eleanor Steffens, 24 Hillview avenue, San Rafael.

Injured Boy Treated At Hospital, Released

Donald M. Frailey, 19, of 15 Blossom drive, San Rafael, was dismissed from Ross General Hospital Saturday night after day-long hospitalization for superficial laceration of both wrists.

San Rafael police said the wounds were self-inflicted. Young Frailey, son of Melvin C. Frailey, vice president of Western Greyhound Lines, admitted earlier this month setting fire to a San Rafael police car parked at city hall.

Man Survives 20-Foot Fall To Concrete

A 24-year-old general laborer living at St. Vincent's School for Boys was knocked unconscious about 7 o'clock last night when he fell 20 feet from a dormitory window onto concrete pavement under mysterious circumstances.

The victim is Billy Wayne Logston, 24, who lived in a third floor room in the employees' dormitory. Sheriff's inspectors were unable to get a statement from Logston last night. He was reported in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital.

Sheriff's inspector Bowen Bridges said Logston suffered a deep gash on the right inner arm and a badly cut left palm. His room was in shambles, with furniture broken or in disarray, and venetian blind split. He appears to have landed on his feet, which may have saved his life, Bridges reported.

Inspector Bridges and Identification Chief Earl Cummesky were to continue investigation of the victim's room and questioning of other employees today.

Hospital Maternity Unit Overcrowded

The premature arrival of 10 infants over the last few days swelled the population of the Marin General Hospital obstetrics suite to 36—six over the number the nursery was designed to handle, a hospital spokesman said today.

Last week it was reported that the hospital had sent patients to other hospitals because of crowding in the medical and surgical sections.

Record Cigarette Consumption Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The government predicted today that Americans would smoke a record 465,900,000,000 cigarettes this year despite charges linking tobacco use to cancer.

The Agriculture Department also estimated that the nation's 58 million smokers would spend six billion dollars on cigarettes, a 500-million-dollar increase over last year.

The department said overall U. S. cigarette production would total 485 billion smokes but that an estimated 19,100,000,000 cigarettes would be exported for foreign use.

Marinites Win Shoes In Store Drawing

Twelve Marin County residents can sport new shoes this week, courtesy of Herberts Shoes in San Rafael.

The new store invited all visitors during its first week of operation to sign cards and deposit them in a bowl. The lucky 12 whose names were drawn from the bowl get their choice of any pair of shoes in the store.

Corte Madera Sewer Line Leak Repaired

A broken eight-inch sewer main at the bottom of Corte Madera's lagoon No. 1 was repaired yesterday after the large ponding area was partially drained to expose the damaged section of pipe.

William A. Adam, manager of Corte Madera Sanitary District, said he planned to test the force main this afternoon before authorizing re-filling of the lagoon. Water probably will be let in through the tide gates at high tide early tomorrow, he said.

The break occurred Sept. 5 near the waterfront home of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo B. Ferrari at 20 Council Crest drive. Two previous attempts to make repairs were unsuccessful.

The weekend job of pumping water out of the lagoon was done by V. Maggiora and Son of Sausalito. Workmen then placed a rubberized gasket over the small hole in the force main and secured it with a steel clamp.

Three Classes Scheduled By Red Cross

Several classes are being scheduled by the Marin Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Starting tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the San Francisco chapter, 1625 Van Ness avenue, will be a class for Army Air Defense volunteers. In Marin County these volunteers travel weekly to the missile bases at Forts Barry and Cronkhite and the Smith Ranch, providing an hour-long "coffee-break" for the military personnel.

A course for Gray Ladies will start at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 6 at the Marin chapter house, 712 Fifth avenue, San Rafael. Gray Ladies visit the county hospital at Lucas Valley, Sonoma State Hospital, state hospital at Imola and the Veterans Home at Yountville. There they provide such services as letter writing, shopping, assisting in craft programs and friendly visiting. Gray Ladies also assist at the Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital.

Two classes in standard first aid will start early in October. One has been scheduled to start Thursday from 9:45 to 11:45 a.m. Mrs. John Dismukes will instruct. The other will start Oct. 6 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. with Mr. William Nachtman, instructor. Both classes will be in the Marin chapter class room and continue for five weeks.

Registration or further information may be obtained by calling the Marin chapter.

Nerves Produce Variety of Ills

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Too many of us have been told, your trouble is nerves, just nerves.

Nervousness is not unusual. But it should not be dismissed lightly. More and more doctors are coming to the conclusion that nervous tension is the result of a chemical imbalance in the body.

Nerves can cause an upset stomach, pains in the chest, legs and other parts of the body. What causes these pains and the chemical imbalance in the body? Your spine consists of 24 bone segments. These bones sit on top of each other. They have a hole in the center and through this hole passes your spinal cord and the nerves to all parts of your body.

a copy of the recommendation of the County Committee on School District Organization for the unification.

If the proposal fails for the second time to win voters' approval in both districts, the county committee has two choices: to call another election on the same question or to re-study the matter and come up with a new proposal.

Merger of the two districts was first recommended to the state Board of Education by the county committee in June, 1958.

The proposal to be voted on tomorrow is identical with the one submitted last January. In addition to a seven-member school board, it would establish a maximum tax rate.

This rate would be just enough to produce the same amount of money as would have the maximum tax rates in the two separate school districts the year preceding unification.

Brand New Auto Stolen From Home

Sheriff's deputies are looking for a brand new 1959 Ford stolen yesterday from a family garage in Terra Linda.

Robert D. Hardy of 731 Del Ganado road told Sheriff George Barnes he had just bought the car for his wife Beverly. The vehicle, light blue, had only about 2,000 miles on it. License number is RVW 528.

Hardy said the car was parked in the garage Saturday night, with keys in the ignition. The garage door was not locked. They stayed up until about 3 a.m. watching television. The car was still in the garage then. When they got up about 8 a.m., the car was gone.

Marinite's Father Dies In East

Horton Edmands, 72, former city editor of the Boston Traveler, and father of John R. Edmands of 510 Quietwood drive, Marinwood, died today at his home in Concord, Mass.

He was a veteran of both world wars and a graduate of Harvard College. He was the first newsman to receive the Croix de Guerre in World War I.

His son, John, planned to fly east today for the military funeral which will be held Wednesday.

His widow and another son, Thomas, a Traveler copy editor, also survive.

OBITUARIES

San Rafael Woman Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Emma D. Klinker, 64, of 241 Alpine street, San Rafael, died unexpectedly yesterday in a local hospital. Mrs. Klinker had not been well for some time.

An autopsy was to be performed today.

She is survived by her husband, Thomas Roy Klinker Sr., an employee of Henry Hess Lumber Co., two sons, Capt. Roy Craig Klinker of the United States Navy, Cleveland, and Thomas Roy Klinker Jr., an electrical contractor of Sebastopol; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Janpe Mendenhall, Cloverdale, and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Klinker was born in San Jose, but had lived for 42 years in Sebastopol before coming to San Rafael four years ago.

She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and Daughters of the American Revolution in Sebastopol.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral at 11 a.m. Wednesday at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

Funeral Held For Marinite's Kin

Funeral services for John A. Perry of Sebastopol, father of Mrs. Alice Cassidy of Tomales, were to be held this afternoon at O'Leary Funeral Home, Sebastopol. Burial was to be in Sebastopol Cemetery.

Perry, a retired carpenter and former U.S. Park Service employee in Lassen County, died Friday in a Santa Rosa Hospital. He was 79.

James J. McBride Final Rites Held

A Requiem High Mass was sung at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael, this morning for James J. McBride, 73, of 845 Fifth avenue, San Rafael.

McBride, a retired San Quentin Prison custodial officer and lifetime San Rafael resident, was found dead Friday in his apartment.

The cortege formed this morning at Keaton's, Fifth and E street, San Rafael. Interment was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. The Rosary was recited last night in Keaton's chapel.

McBride is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Swanson and Mrs. Florence Nichols, and a son, James J.

Last Rights Held For Novato Man

Funeral services were held today in Napa for George Erickson, 74, of 2174 Center road, Novato, where he had lived for the past year and a half with his niece, Mrs. Lyle Croissant.

Erickson died Friday in a San Francisco hospital following surgery. He is a former resident of Napa.

A retired Southern Pacific Railroad employee, Erickson was the husband of the late Mrs. Susan Erickson, who died two years ago in Napa. The couple had no children.

He is survived by a brother, Victor Erickson of New Jersey.

JAPAN REELS AS TYPHOON LEAVES HUNDREDS DEAD

928,000 Homeless; Property And Crop Damage Tremendous

TOKYO (P)—Japan staggered today under mounting casualties from the whiplash of a weekend typhoon which left at least 2,618 dead or missing and 927,708 homeless.

Wary officials at national police headquarters worked around the clock to keep up with the rising toll as rescuers dug through mud and debris for bodies. By noon they listed 1,161 known dead, 1,467 missing and 4,668 injured.

Widespread crop damage sent prices of rice and vegetables skyrocketing, heaping more hardship on the grieving populace.

Brown Says Demos Are West's Hope

SUN VALLEY, Ida. (P)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California said at the windup of the Western Governors' Conference Saturday that the Democrats must win in 1960 to assure full development of the West.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie, a Republican, said it looks as though Brown is running for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Seven of the nine governors who attended the conference approved a resolution calling upon the President to direct the Commerce Department to let the states go ahead with federal interstate projects even though the money is not immediately available.

One of the two dissenters, Republican Gov. George D. Clyde of Utah, said such a resolution was premature. He said there was no certainty the Commerce Department planned to hold up any interstate projects.

Gov. Albert D. Rosellini of Washington, a Democrat, was elected chairman of the conference for next year. He succeeded Smylie. Clyde was named vice chairman.

The governors asked the administration and Congress to adopt a minerals policy "which would assure the maintenance of a healthy mining industry," and recommended no stockpile metals be sold until such a policy has been adopted.

They asked Congress to prohibit federal loans and grants to develop foreign mining.

Board Will Hear Center, Trailer Court Protests

The Marin County Board of Supervisors, meeting at 9 a.m. Tuesday in the courthouse annex, will hear the usual complaints against the construction of a civic center.

A number of postal card protests and letters are scheduled to be read.

The board also will consider a protest from James H. Fuller against a trailer court in Stinson Beach, and in the afternoon 14 planning commission matters are on the agenda.

Changes in Juvenile Hall plans and changes in the architectural contract for Juvenile Hall are to be considered at 4:30 p.m.

DEATH SEPARATES INSEPARABLE TWINS—BUT ONLY FOR BRIEF TIME

DUNKERQUE, France (P)—Jean and Yves Delavance were twin brothers who led one life.

The twins were born 39 years ago. They went to school together, played games together and were inseparable. They even managed to stay in the same work camp in Germany during World War II.

When they returned to Dunkerque, their parents were dead. The brothers reopened the small family grocery store. Their identical gray sweaters and trousers became a familiar sight in the channel town.

Two weeks ago Yves fell ill and was taken to a hospital. He died there a few days later.

On the day of the funeral, Jean entered the hospital. Doctors could find nothing organically wrong with him, but a week later he died.

"It's very strange, but apparently he could not live without his brother. I guess you would have to say he died of sorrow," said the doctor.

Miss Churchill In New Scrape

LONDON (UP)—Sarah Churchill, actress daughter of Sir Winston Churchill, was fined two pounds ($5.60) today for being drunk and disorderly.

A police officer told a magistrate that Miss Churchill 45, was holding "a sort of political meeting" in a London snack bar last Saturday night when he was called to eject her.

Constable David Bearne said "I got her outside and she tried to get back, so I arrested her."

The charge was "being drunk and disorderly."

Ike Urges More Aid To Underdeveloped Lands

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower called on other industrial nations today to provide more economic aid to spur the growth of less developed countries.

The President addressing the opening session of the 14th annual meeting of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund, urged the 68-member nations to support a new billion-dollar International Development Assn. proposed by the United States. Russia is not a member.

Eisenhower said the prosperity he saw on his recent trip to Europe was a sign that industrial countries have recovered from wartime setbacks and can do more in the international aid area.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

A Suggestion For 'Best Possible Use' Of Stinson

Last month in this space we had a few remarks about the operation of Stinson Beach State Park.

Today, in the What Our Readers Say column on this page, the director of the State Department of Natural Resources replies to that editorial. It is a friendly and interested reply. We are happy he has accepted our criticism in the spirit in which it was intended.

At the start of his letter he says he "must agree with (our) thesis that we have not as yet made the best possible use of Stinson Beach State Park."

With this in mind, we would like to make a specific suggestion for consideration in making the best possible use of the park.

Stinson residents know, and I'm sure the park attendance records will bear out the fact that the beach is cram-jam packed on summer weekends and nearly deserted the rest of the time.

Obviously, the facilities have to be constructed for the peak load, as they say in the Division of Highways. You can't plan a facility for the average use and expect it to take care of biggest crowds.

But you shouldn't eliminate the people who would use the park at the off periods. Specifically we mean the campers. Why should they be banned during the week when the park isn't being used by the picnickers?

It would seem desirable to us, and certainly within park policy of making the greatest use of facilities available, to let the campers in. Why not a rule like:

Camping permitted from noon Mondays to noon Fridays except no camping permitted the night before or the night after a holiday.

With no camping on either Sunday or Friday nights, the camp crews would have some time to clean up before and after the weekend crowds. But the poor guy with a tent who wants a couple days at the beach without mortgaging the farm, would be able to enjoy it.

Nor do we think facilities would need to be radically changed. Showers and facilities for 4,000 picnickers certainly should be adequate for 50 or so campers.

We think the department also might study their beach-use figures to see if the camping ban is really needed over the winter weekends. Often a camper will enjoy a weekend in the open when a picnicker will stick to the homefire.

In any event, we hope the natural resources director will consider this suggestion in making the "best possible use" of our park.

A National Butterfly?

After all the impassioned oratory in the U. S. Senate over the selection of a national flower, we hesitate to raise the patriotic voices once again by suggesting a national butterfly. But the large elegant Tiger Swallowtail seems so certain to be the favorite that we would have no hesitation nominating him should the opportunity ever arise.

This aristocratic yellow, black and blue fellow who adorns our Marin landscape is equally at home in California and 48 of the other states.

A high, swift flyer, he is very difficult to capture, thus we can claim our candidate is controlled by no faction. His distinctive appearance in his handsomely tailored swallowtail outfit will affect the female voters, young and old.

Those of us who are promoting Tiger Swallowtail for national butterfly will naturally try to gloss over his ugly, green caterpillar days when he is frightening and odorous. His enemies will doubtless point them out and claim our candidate is a dangerous demagogue.

But Tiger Swallowtail has undergone a metamorphosis and now has everything to win.

Australian Aborigines Had Method To Avoid Mother-In-Law Troubles per cent more body fat than the average man, despite the fact most fatheads you meet are male.

George Bernard Shaw once said, "The only service a friend can really render is to keep up your courage by holding up to you a mirror in which you can see a noble image of yourself."

The United States now has 600,000 hit-and-run accidents a year, and in half of them the drivers go unpunished.

Incidentally, a survey by the USO showed that the Christmas gifts most wanted by U. S. servicemen overseas are more family photographs, more mail from home and subscriptions to their home town newspapers.

Around 1907 the average man spent $33 a year on clothing and bought a new $10 suit annually. Now the average man wears more sports attire, buys a new suit only about every three years.

Apt definition: "Alimony," says Al Cooper, "is just the high cost of leaving."

America now has enough surplus wheat to bake about 60 billion loaves of bread or nearly 25 for every person in the world.

What state leads the nation in lady politicians? It's New Hampshire which has 55 women in its legislature.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS. "Remember," recalls comic George De Witt, "when hotel rooms used to have courtesy signs asking, 'Have you left anything?' Now they might as well say, 'Have you anything left?'"

The motorist is getting more pampered every day. Some Midwest gas stations now offer free shoe shines while your car is being serviced.

Feeling older? By 1970 America will have 20 million people over 65 years of age.

20 YEARS AGO

The largest and most threatening brush fire of the season was discovered on the westerly slope of East Blithedale Ridge in Mill Valley and was fanned by a brisk wind off the ocean. On the eastern slope of Mt. Tamalpais, the fire was brought under control, but Warner Canyon was menaced on a second front.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

$300,000, More Trees For Stinson

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

We have read your editorial of Aug. 26, and must agree with your thesis that we have not as yet made the best possible use of Stinson Beach State Park.

On reading our original letter we do not find where we said we had yet developed it to its maximum or to its best possible use. We merely congratulated you for a fine feature article informing the public of what we have done so far with funds appropriated by the Legislature. We repeat the accolade.

Now let us seek to answer your editorial queries.

We agree that "half the fun of going to Stinson was to go to the beach, romp in the sand and in the waves, then retire to the shaded willow groves to roast hot dogs or hamburgers." It will be that way again, as the plan we are revealing here will indicate.

We will seek within the next two fiscal years legislative approval of budgetary requests totaling $300,000, which will enable us to do the following:

Provide paved parking for 900 cars, allowing use of the area for 4,000 persons. In addition, the splendid beach will handle still another 2,000 persons.

Provide additional comfort stations and dressing rooms, along with adequate shower facilities.

Landscape and plant shaded areas, to restore pleasant picnic sites.

Develop no less than 100 picnic sites, i.e., barbecue stove, table, etc., and allow for more picnicking in the shade for many more families.

Construct a concession building where those not desiring to "do it yourself" may partake of food and refreshment, as well as purchase or rent beach equipment.

We assure you there will be no trees cut down indiscriminately. If any are cut, it will be only because it is essential for the development of the park for greater public use.

All of us are keenly aware that Stinson Beach is the one beach area in northern California from the Santa Cruz beaches north which provides ideal swimming opportunity. We will not let it go undeveloped. Our administration of parks has always leaned on retaining aesthetic values and promoting them if they did not exist; we have not changed. Trees will be planted.

Under present plans there will be no camping within Stinson Beach State Park. The same principle holds true in most southern California areas: day use demand is much, much greater and the few camping facilities we could provide would not adequately compensate for the area used or the investment required.

We all like to remember the "good old days" and we regret changes that have occurred in our favorite outdoor spots, but these changes are caused by masses of new people demanding recreational areas and we believe it is wiser to plan for these new masses of recreation-seekers rather than have them overrun and destroy park areas because of lack of planning and facilities.

You make reference to the banning of dogs after certain hours within our parks and also to our requirement that during day hours they be leashed. We are attaching a resume of the reasoning behind this regulation, which speaks for itself.

I am requesting the Division of Beaches and Parks to further answer your questions on development plans for other state parks in Marin County, and we will welcome your continued interest in this matter.

(NOTE: Reader Dolder enclosed a page from a Beaches and Parks publication which listed reasons for prohibiting dogs at night and leashing them in the daytime. Two major reasons were "for the dog's sake," because he may be "no match for a disturbed racoon, skunk, bobcat, bear, deer, or any other animals which inhabit our parks," and for the campers' sake, for they "get no sleep" with barking and baying dogs about. We'd like to point out that neither of these reasons applies to Stinson which has no animals big enough to worry a small terrier, and no campers. We were not suggesting elimination of the leash rule, but sensible modification on the spot by rangers who should be able to be reasonable not rule-bound. Also note today's editorial.)

Most Revolting Show On TV

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The most revolting show I have ever seen on TV, last night (Sept. 21). The governor of our state, and the mayor of San Francisco, along with numerous other dignitaries, toasting the "bloody Butcher Boy of Budapest," and wishing he would come again and stay longer next time.

He probably will, if American citizens continue to go along with this line. Only next time the cherished gold service, will be the property of the state — Bolshevik style.

A brash soprano made her debut at the famous opera house in Milan. The applause was so tumultuous that she had to sing her big aria seven times. She then blew kisses to the audience and announced tearfully, "You've made me the happiest girl in all the world. But I'm so exhausted I can give you no more encores."

From the top balcony came a stern voice: "You go right on singing that aria till you get it right!"

"Phew," signed a relieved surgeon as he joined his colleagues in the hospital's executive dining room. "I sure performed that operation in the nick of time! Another hour and the patient would have recovered without it!"

News items from a weekly newspaper in the deep South: "Despite the high cost of liquor, a ten-cent drink of it is still available in this state — a recent autopsy shows."

REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

Grass, Brush Fire In Tam Valley Burned Some Poison Oak, Too

In that grass and brush fire a couple of weeks ago near Tam Valley, a huge quantity of poison oak also burned.

As most folks know, the smoke from the dratted stuff burning is far worse than direct contact. Tam Valley Fire Chief Bud Owen, as a matter of normal precaution, fed quantities of anti-poison oak pills to his men immediately.

Only cases reported thus far are among residents of nearby Crest Marin who watched the fire over their back fences as the smoke drifted by.

LAWSON BRAINERD, supervisory park ranger at Muir Woods since 1941, carries his love for the outdoors to an unusual extreme. On his recent vacation, he and his wife, a teacher at Mill Valley's Park School, took off for a three-week exploratory trip in Guatemala and Yucatan where they engaged in extensive study of Mayan ruins and culture.

For three weeks, the studious couple from Mill Valley clambered over rocks and other impedimenta, pursuing their hazardous hobby and avocation.

The sequel came on their return when Mrs. Brainerd suffered a broken arm as a result of a home accident. Happily, she's back teaching as she is recovering.

BILL CASTERSON, Southern Marin phone company manager for the past two years, is being boosted along by being transferred from Mill Valley to the larger San Mateo office.

His successor, Chuck Berlenbach from Berkeley, will be hard put to fill Bill's capable shoes. Not only did Bill do a highly capable managing job (including outstanding public relations), but also served as a director of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club. We're sure he'll do well wherever he goes.

Khrushchev Admitted Soviets Need Peace To Catch Up With U.S.

Now that Mr. K's tour is over, we can breathe more easily. There were great risks in sending the leading Communist of the world into our crowded cities, and if the security measures to protect him look excessive, we must remember that it is better to have been safe than sorry.

There have been some embarrassing incidents. These were bound to happen once both governments accepted the half-baked idea that the great issues which divide us can be dealt with by face-to-face catch-as-catch-can encounters.

THE ROUGH passages were to be expected as long as the trip was regarded as an exercise in mutual conversion and seduction. But these incidents are not likely to have any lasting importance, and there is certainly no reason to think that what Mr. K. and the President had to say to one another was altered in any significant way.

Neither could follow his personal feelings. The President was confined within the limits of the Western alliance and of the long-established positions of the United States government. Mr. K., for all of his being a dictator, was confined within the limits of the massive Soviet system and of its alliances.

ALTHOUGH MR. K. rebuffed the heckling about Hungary, about censorship, and about other dark spots in his regime, it must be said, I believe, that on the basic theme of his visit he has been straight-forward. He has not glossed over, indeed he has emphasized, the fact that the two social orders are rivals.

He has insisted, of course, that the Soviets will win the competition. But he has ad-

Board, lives on a rocky cliff overlooking Raccoon Straits, where he has a magnificent view of the Bay and the G. G. Bridge.

Commuting to his S.F. job at odd hours, he says, has proven most difficult and he now has his home up for sale.

While it's true that it is opposite the sewage disposal plant operated by the district he heads, this fact has no bearing on his decision, he says, in spite of the amusing and somewhat inaccurate comment made by one of the S.F. scribes recently — including misspelling of his name.

WHICH RECALLS a recent comment from Sausalito's John Ehlen, referring to a fellow who was always saying the wrong thing.

"He has an impediment in his speech," Ehlen avers. "It's his foot!"

COMMUNITY interest was at its best the other night when the Sausalito planning commission met until the wee small hours.

Being sympathetic by nature, Dave Orthwein, whose swank new sidewalk cafe adjoins the city hall, arrived at just the right late hour with coffee for the commissioners.

Chairman Victor Hecht was quick to announce that Orthwein had no pending matters before the commission.

NATIVES OF Tiburon's Hilltop Hill Haven section looked on goggle-eyed last week as a full sized Greyline bus came lumbering up the narrow streets in an area where the eye of man has never seen such a vehicle.

Its human cargo turned out to be a group of chattering ladies en route to a garden party at the home of Miss Ann Ellinwood.

No problem to the driver, though. He just sat in his bus and when the affair was over, reloaded his charges and disappeared down the same winding hills into the San Francisco fog that had arrived.

mitted frankly that it will take years of very hard effort to catch up with us and to surpass us. This was an admission, indeed it was an argument, that the Soviet Union must have peace.

There is no way of telling now whether he communicated this message to the multitudes who saw and heard on television. But there is little doubt that he has been understood by the United States government.

IN FACT, the President would not have invited Mr. K. to come to Washington had he not been certain that the Soviet Union and Mr. K. want to avoid war, to avoid it, not because they love us but because they themselves need years of peace.

This was the crucial point. It has injected an element of sincerity and credibility into Mr. K's persistent appeals for peace. If this crucial point is true, it marks the radical difference between the totalitarianism of the Soviet Union today and the totalitarianism of Germany under the Nazis. Hitler's goals could be achieved only by military conquest. The Soviet goals in the era over which Mr. K. presides cannot be achieved, indeed they would be utterly impossible if there were war.

IN THE SERIOUS discussions, we could not afford to be distracted and diverted from the main purpose of the exchange of visits by the trivialities and the irrelevancies of the pitter-patter of the propagandists and of the exhibitionists. We needed to talk with Mr. K. and he needed to talk with us.

While our conflict is irreconcilable in this generation, both of us know that it cannot be settled by arms.

'MONSTER' REPORT STIRS KIDS TO ARMS

NEPTUNE, N.J. (UP)—Police begged school officials today to convince their students "there isn't any monster" in the local woods—and that anyone caught hunting for one with weapons is liable to arrest.

Eleven teen-agers are already under arrest for "monster-hunting" with knives, blank-firing pistols and a variety of bludgeons.

Several hundred more gave police the jitters over the weekend as they alternately roared and sneaked about in packs looking for "creatures."

Wall Township Police Supt. Edwin Fletcher said the story apparently was started last week by a pair of Manasquan High School students who reported their car was stoned in a lonely area "by a big moving creature."

TOO FEW SIGN UP

Tam District's Extra Classes Cut To Nine

Slightly more than half a loaf is better than none.

Tamalpais Union High School District is operating under this theory in conducting an academic pilot program which offers college preparatory students an extra one-hour class period, starting at 7:30 a.m.

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle reported today that of the 15 early period classes originally offered, only nine have survived at the district's three schools. The other six were dropped because of insufficient enrollment, he said.

The surviving classes have a total enrollment of 141, compared with the 225 to 450 which district administrators and trustees had hoped to attract for the experimental program.

Counselors at Tamalpais, Redwood and Sir Francis Drake

High Schools list three major reasons for the disappointing enrollment, Carlisle said. They are: (1) Transportation difficulties at the early hour, (2) work done by students in summer school, and (3) heavy academic loads on students during the regular school day, which starts at 8:30 a.m.

Trying to look at the brighter side, Robert D. Torrey, district director of instruction, said, "The significant thing about the program is that our schools are giving 141 students something they need and want badly enough to make extra effort and overcome some inconveniences."

"In addition," said Torrey, "these (early period subjects) are some of the toughest courses that the schools have to offer."

Carlisle reported Drake High School has 68 students enrolled in physiology, English, geometry and advanced algebra classes. A fifth class, which was to offer Latin or Spanish, depending on signups, was never started because of lack of interest, he stated.

Tamalpais High School has an early period enrollment of 49 students in chemistry, advanced algebra and English. Dropped were biology and U. S. history.

At Redwood High, 24 students attend early classes in U. S. history and advanced algebra. Latin, problems of American democracy and biology were dropped.

San Rafael High School may initiate a seven-period day for "academically talented" students next semester, but the extra period would come at the end of the regular school day, Supt. Frank L. Lucas announced.

Lucas said enough students are interested in the extended day program to make it worthwhile offering.

William Otis invented the steam shovel in 1839.

'Cycle Mishap Injures Pair

Two young San Francisco brothers were thrown off a motorcycle on Highway 1 south of Olema yesterday and injured.

Alex Delipiski, 14, suffering from back injuries, was taken to Marin General Hospital and then transferred to St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco. Marin General attendants said his condition was "good."

His brother, Nicholas, 19, driver of the motorcycle, complained of a bruised head but was not treated.

Nicholas told the California Highway Patrol that he was driving south at about 9:45 a.m. when "something on the road" hit the motorcycle, causing it to go out of control.

Co-eds at the University of Cincinnati are learning it takes more than a shape to shine these days.

Mrs. Janet M. Thomas, director of the campus Modern Dance Club, has been working with a group of co-eds in what they call a "figure forum." She feels there has been too much emphasis on women's dimensions and not enough on what is "really important"—poise and grace in motion or at rest.

Mrs. Thomas believes "the world's best shape isn't enough, and even without the best shape everyone can make progress in learning to form the body to pleasant contours and to make it flow into satisfying and visually pleasant movement."

How? Mrs. Thomas suggests lessons can be learned from the dancer. These lessons are applied here.

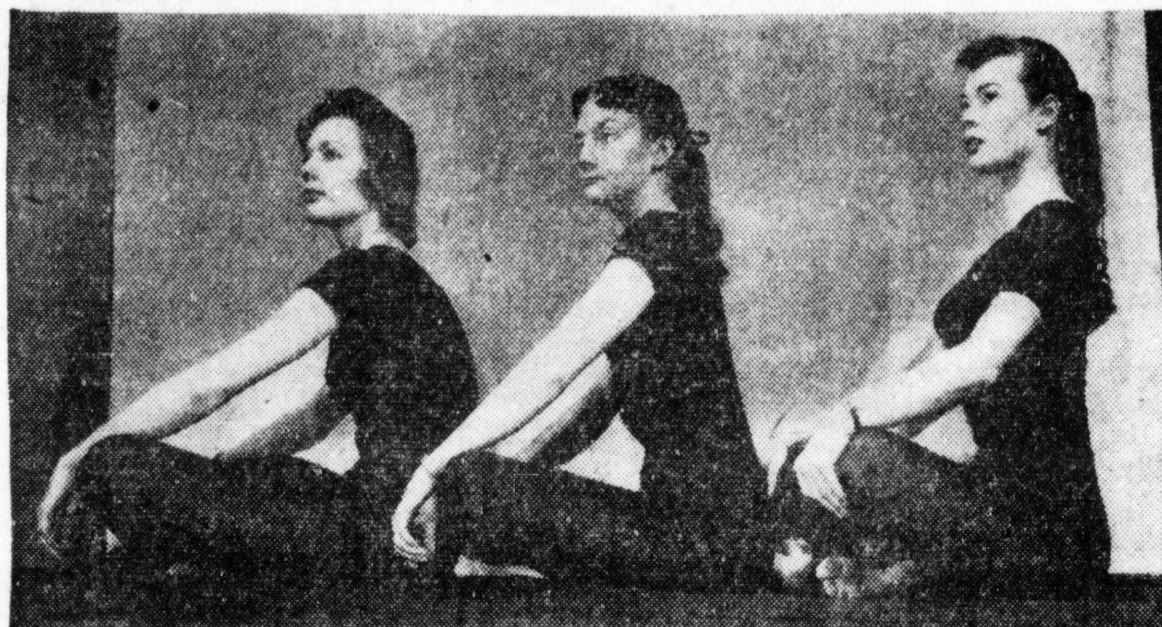

FIGURE FORUM

Shirley King holds stick against Ellen Harris' spine so she can feel each vertebra being aligned.

Starting position is important as Paulette Dorsel and Nancy Mofford do torso twist to slenderize waist, but Paulette, left, does it correctly.

Postures, from bad to perfect: Paulette Dorsel slumps; Emma Moses' is fairly good, while Ellen Harris achieves the ultimate by taking deep breath.

Flat feet at left could develop the dancer's well-arched feet at right through dance exercise.

Jeanne Hubble's high-heeled feet can ward off aches and pains by adopting the dancer's lunge position and then bouncing up and down on the heel of the rear foot.

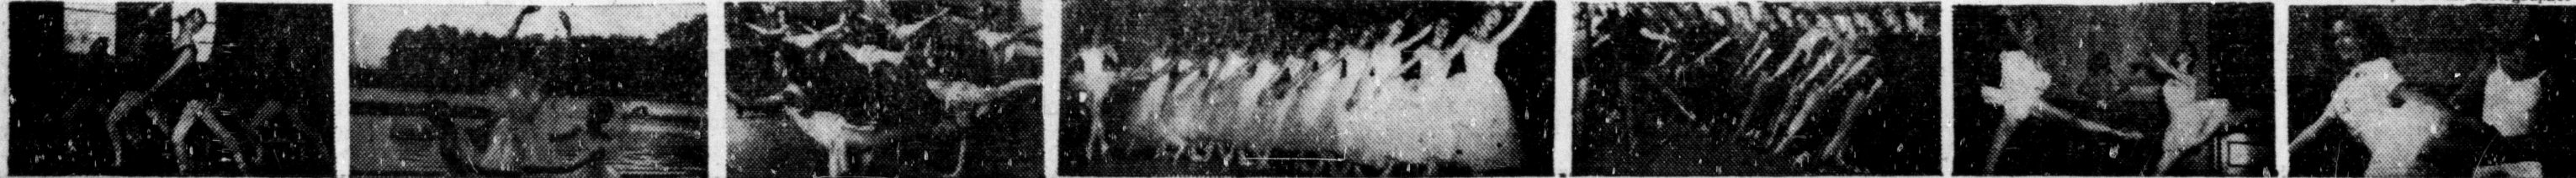

An Oriental dance? No, it's a chest-firming exercise demonstrated by co-ed Diane Lengel.

Sit on the floor with a cup of tea at a party? It can be graceful if you know dancer's deep-knee bend. Ellen Harris, left, demonstrates. Caryl Stuckey and Therese Crittenden adopt it to party dress and company manners.

History Repeats; Can Bums Overcome Playoff Jinx?

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

On the last Friday of the season, the Dodgers had a day off but gained a tie for the National League pennant. They kept it through Saturday and Sunday, although losing 4-0 to the Braves in the final game, and for the first time in major league history a playoff decided a pennant.

That was in 1946. The Dodgers, then a Brooklyn bunch, lost the flag to the St. Louis Cardinals, who swept the first two games in the best-of-three playoff.

Five years later, on the last Friday of the season, the Dodgers dropped into a first-place tie with the idle Giants with a 4-3 loss at Philadelphia. Both won on Saturday, and again on Sunday, the final day, setting up the second pennant playoff in history.

Dodgerville Daffy Over Beloved Bums

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I knew it, I tell ya, I knew it!" "I just can't believe it. It's too good to be..." "Those sons-a-guns. Those unpredictable, wonderful sons-a-guns."

And so the words fly in a town become Dodgerville. Proud? Happy? That hardly hits it. The homefolks are daft. They're gone, man!

By the tens of thousands they watched on television and listened on the radio as the Dodgers beat Chicago's Cubs in the final game of the regular season yesterday.

The yells that went up from little knots of viewers all over the city would have made a mighty roar if they had been in the Coliseum.

When Milwaukee's Braves defeated the Phillies a couple of hours later, many of them were still standing by.

"Absolutely delighted," was Mayor Norris Poulson's comment. He added, "I remain confident that the Dodgers will accomplish new feats that will please all of our people during the next few days."

County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn jubilantly predicted that all baseball attendance records will go out the window if the Dodgers win the pennant and play a World Series in the Coliseum.

"CRAIG FOR MAYOR" Roger Craig, the winning Dodger pitcher, would have stood a good chance to be elected mayor today. Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and a few other Dodgers could easily get on the City Council.

What are Los Angeles fans now saying after the first flush of victory has cooled down?

"The playoff. They've just got to win that playoff!"

Up the coast in the home of the San Francisco Giants, all was glum. There, too, baseball followers arose early on Sunday morning to tune in the broadcasts. As their team's last dim hopes crumbled, the groans could be heard every place one turned. Their plans to see their first World Series had turned to dust.

Mrs. Roberta Morrison spoke for many a fan when she said, "I don't suppose the full impact of it will hit me until I see the playoff game on TV."

Said her husband Jack: "I have no comment, but I'm writing a book. It's called 'The Life and Crimes of Bill Rigney.'"

Rigney is manager of the Giants.

Aussie Captures Southwest Tennis

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Roy Emerson became the first Australian in six years to win the men's singles title and Brazil's Maria Bueno went down to her first defeat of the year in the women's finals of the Pacific Southwest Tennis Tournament yesterday.

Emerson whipped India's Ramanathan Krishnan 6-3, 4-6, 6-0, 6-4.

Beverly Fleitz came from behind to defeat Miss Bueno 4-6, 6-4, 6-3. Miss Bueno is the U.S. and Wimbledon champion.

Louis In Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ex-heavyweight champion Joe Louis escaped with a bump on the head when his car collided with another Saturday.

That was 1951. And if you don't remember how the Dodgers lost that one, you're only seven years old.

THIRD PLAYOFF

Eight years later, on the last Friday of the season, the Dodgers won 5-4 in 11 innings at Chicago and took a one-game lead. Saturday the lead was a tie, after they lost 12-2 to the Cubs and Milwaukee's Braves beat Philadelphia 3-2. It stayed a tie yesterday, the final day, when the Dodgers beat the Cubs 7-1 and the Braves beat the Phils 5-2.

So the Dodgers headed into their third pennant playoff, and the NL's third, at Milwaukee today against the Braves.

The winner will get a day off before jumping into the World Series against Chicago's American League champion White Sox either Thursday or

Friday at Chicago's Comiskey Park.

The Dodgers and Braves, either destined to win with the fewest victories (88) in N.L. history, junked any chance for an unprecedented three-way tie by winning Sunday. That killed San Francisco's Giants, who made it doubly sure by losing a double-header at St. Louis, 2-1 and 14-8.

DODGERS BREEZE

Roger Craig (11-5) put it away for the Dodgers, winning his fifth in a row with a six-hitter and driving in a pair of second-inning runs with a single off Bob Anderson (12-13). Charlie Neal and John Roseboro made it a breeze with two-run homers.

Earl Averill homered for the Cubs' run in the fifth—their second hit off Craig.

The Braves, playing with the Los Angeles victory on the scoreboard, kept the deadlock with all their runs unearned. They beat Jim Owens (12-12) with three runs in the seventh.

Two singles, an error, a walk, a passed ball and a balk, by reliever Humberto Robinson, clinched it, giving the victory to Bob Buhl, (15-9) after he had been tagged for a fifth inning homer by Carl Sawatski that tied it 1-1. Sawatski, like Robinson an ex-Brave, doubled home the other Phillie run in the ninth, off reliever Don McMahon.

The Giants, beaten in the opener when the Cards scored two unearned runs in the eighth, lost seven of their last eight games—after leading by two with nine days to go.

Cincinnati tied Chicago for fifth place in the final standings, beating fourth place Pittsburgh 9-7 in the other N.L. game.

DODGER HEROES—It's handshakes all around for Dodger heroes of 7-1 victory over Chicago Cubs which resulted in their ending season tied with Milwaukee. Left to right: Charlie Neal who hit a homer; pitcher Roger Craig; Manager Walt Alton, and John Roseboro, who also hit a home run. Playoff series with Milwaukee started today. (AP Wire-photo)

SCHEFFING OUT, GRIMM IN AS CUBS' MANAGER

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Scheffing today resigned as manager of the Chicago Cubs baseball team and the club's president, Phil Wrigley, announced Charley Grimm would be Scheffing's successor in 1960.

Wrigley said of the veteran Grimm that the club has an experienced major league manager and "Grimm's record speaks for itself."

This is the fourth time the 61-year-old Grimm, who has been serving as vice president of the club, has been named Cub manager.

During his managerial years with the Cubs Grimm guided them to National League pennants in 1932, 1935 and 1945.

Marin Swimmers Place 5th, 11th In Golden Gate Race

Two Marin County men placed fifth and 11th yesterday in the South End Rowing Club's annual Golden Gate Swim.

Norm Peterson of Fairfax, a sheetrock contractor, came in fifth in the time of 29 minutes, 10 seconds.

In 11th position, but only four seconds behind the eighth place finisher, was Jim Grant of San Rafael, an insurance agent. Grant was clocked at 31:08.

Winner of the one and one-quarter mile race was Ron Raeta. His time was 24:40. Frank Blair was second at 25:05 and Dave Lomski third in 26:12.

Emerson whipped India's Ramanathan Krishnan 6-3, 4-6, 6-0, 6-4.

Beverly Fleitz came from behind to defeat Miss Bueno 4-6, 6-4, 6-3. Miss Bueno is the U.S. and Wimbledon champion.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ex-heavyweight champion Joe Louis escaped with a bump on the head when his car collided with another Saturday.

MARIN CLOBBERED

It Happened In Monterey - 420

"A real threshing machine" was the College of Marin Coach Harry Pieper's description of the Monterey Peninsula College Lobos following their 42-0 rout of his Tars Saturday night at Fort Ord Stadium near Monterey.

San Rafael, Redwood Win

San Rafael and Redwood displayed rock-ribbed defenses yesterday as they scored shut-out victories in Pop Warner Football Conference games at Kentfield.

San Rafael zeroed an out-manned but scrappy St. Vincent's School team, 18-0, and Redwood whitewashed Livermore's defending champions, 19-0.

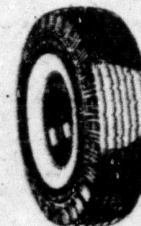

Other Marin teams didn't do so well, however. Sebastopol outscored Mill Valley 18-15 and San Anselmo bowed to Petaluma, 7-0 on the northern grid-irons.

Jim Schmidt scored two touchdowns for San Rafael on a 65-yard punt return and a one-yard plunge. The latter was set up on a 30-yard pass from Bob Taylor to Stan Parato and a 10-yard end sweep by Tim Garvin. Garvin scored San Rafael's other TD on a 23-yard return of an intercepted pass.

Al Weckel scored touchdowns on runs of 35 and 25 yards and Dave Auerbach scooted 30 yards to paydirt in Redwood's victory.

SEPT. 19-20: DATES RIGNEY WON'T FORGET

ST. LOUIS (AP)—"We really met our Waterloo in San Francisco against the Dodgers," said Manager Bill Rigney, discussing the collapse of the Giants.

"Those two in Chicago hurt, sure," said the lean, grey-haired pilot. "But those three to Los Angeles really hurt us."

The Dodgers clipped the Giants three times in two days Sept. 19-20, dropping San Francisco one game from the top before the eyes of the home fans.

The Giants actually were not eliminated until the final day of the season. But their loss of a doubleheader by scores of 2-1 and 14-8 to the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday was an anti-climax.

Rigney's men accepted their fate after the first game with quiet resignation. They had hoped for a miracle, but didn't expect one to happen.

NIGHTMARISH WEEK

The five-game skid made it a nightmarish week for Giant fans.

Rigney admitted he has heard "absolutely nothing" about his own status. Rumors persisted that ex-Giant Manager Leo Durocher might be given Bill's job.

There was no question that the lack of a big, strong relief stopper was fatal for the over-worked San Francisco pitching staff. The starters ran out of gas at the finish.

Sam Jones appeared in 50 games and finished 21-15 but the toothpick man lost three straight before winning No. 21.

Sam was both the best starter and the best reliever.

Johnny Antonelli, 19-10, lost three times in quest of No. 20. It might be noted that the temperamental left-hander didn't get a chance to win his 20th Sunday.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful typically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

Hickey Confident Of Whipping Rams

By ALAN CLINE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Coach Red Hickey says his San Francisco 49ers will beat the Los Angeles Rams Sunday at Kezar Stadium.

"We're going to beat the Rams. They can put in on the bulletin board if they want and you can quote me," Hickey said yesterday after the 49ers beat Philadelphia 24-14 before 41,697 at Kezar.

"We're not as bad as we looked down there and they are not that good," Hickey was referring to the 48-14 defeat the 49ers took in an exhibition at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

The Rams lost their opener Saturday night 23-21 to New Yorker and Ram quarterback Billy Wade injured som ligaments in his knee.

To Hickey, the defensive unit was responsible for the Eagle victory. Abe Woodson and Eddie Dove set up two touchdowns with some punt returns of 65 and 62 yards respectively.

The total 144 yards in punt returns was a new 49er record.

The 49er line held Philadelphia to 104 yards and quarterback Norm Von Brocklin to 21 pass completions in 40 attempts for 174 yards.

Joe Perry, switched from fullback to halfback, and J. D. Smith carried the 49er running load. Smith scored the first touchdown on a one-yard plunge in the first quarter after Woodson's run carried to the Eagle five.

Perry went five yards for a touchdown in the second quarter, ending a 70-yard drive in eight plays. Quarterback Y. A. Tittle's 35-yard pass to end Billy Wilson was the key play.

Tittle hit Owens for a 10-yard paydirt pass in the third quarter after Dove's run. Rookie Tommy Davis' 43-yard field goal in the final quarter set a new 49er field goal record, bettering Gordy Soltau's best by a yard.

PRO GRID ROUNDUP

Stunner! Packers Knock Over Bears

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The name Vince Lombardi has been pencilled into Green Bay Packers annals. Johnny Unitas gets another line in Baltimore record books. Bert Bell smiles.

Bell, the National Football League's major-domo, again predicted that this season—the pro circuit's 40th—will be the greatest in history. He does it every year.

But, he couldn't have known:

1. That the Packers, almost unanimously picked to finish last in the Western Division, would make Lombardi's debut as head coach a monumental success with a 9-6 upset of the highly ranked Chicago Bears.

2. That Unitas, Baltimore's passing wizard, would fire the befuddled Colts to a 21-9 victory over the stubborn Detroit Lions and extend one of the NFL's greatest records at the same time.

CARDINALS ROMP

While the Packers and Colts were winning their season-openers over the weekend, the Chicago Cardinals continued to support the thesis they are the team to beat in the Eastern Division by thumping Washington 49-21.

In other curtain-raisers, New York's Giants pulled a mild upset by edging Los Angeles 23-21, the Pittsburgh Steelers downed Cleveland 17-7 and San Francisco's 49ers defeated Philadelphia 24-14.

Jim Ringo pounced on a fumble on the Bears' 26 to set up the Packers' victory. With Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor alternating, the Packers moved goalward, Taylor going the final five yards. Hornung's conversion put the Packers ahead to stay 7-6. The Bears were the top team in exhibition play with a 5-1 record.

Unitas hit Ray Berry with an 18-yard touchdown pass as the third period closed to get the Colts, who had floundered for 40 minutes, out front 14-9. It was the 26th consecutive game in which the Baltimore signal-caller has thrown a touchdown pass—a record without parallel in pro football history.

Pat Summerall's 18-yard field goal with 1:58 left gave the Giants their victory over the Rams before the weekend's largest crowd—71,297 at I. Angeles. Billy Wade passed for two Ram touchdowns before he was injured in the final quarter.

49ERS GET ROLLING TO CHALK UP WIN IN FIRST LEAGUE GAME

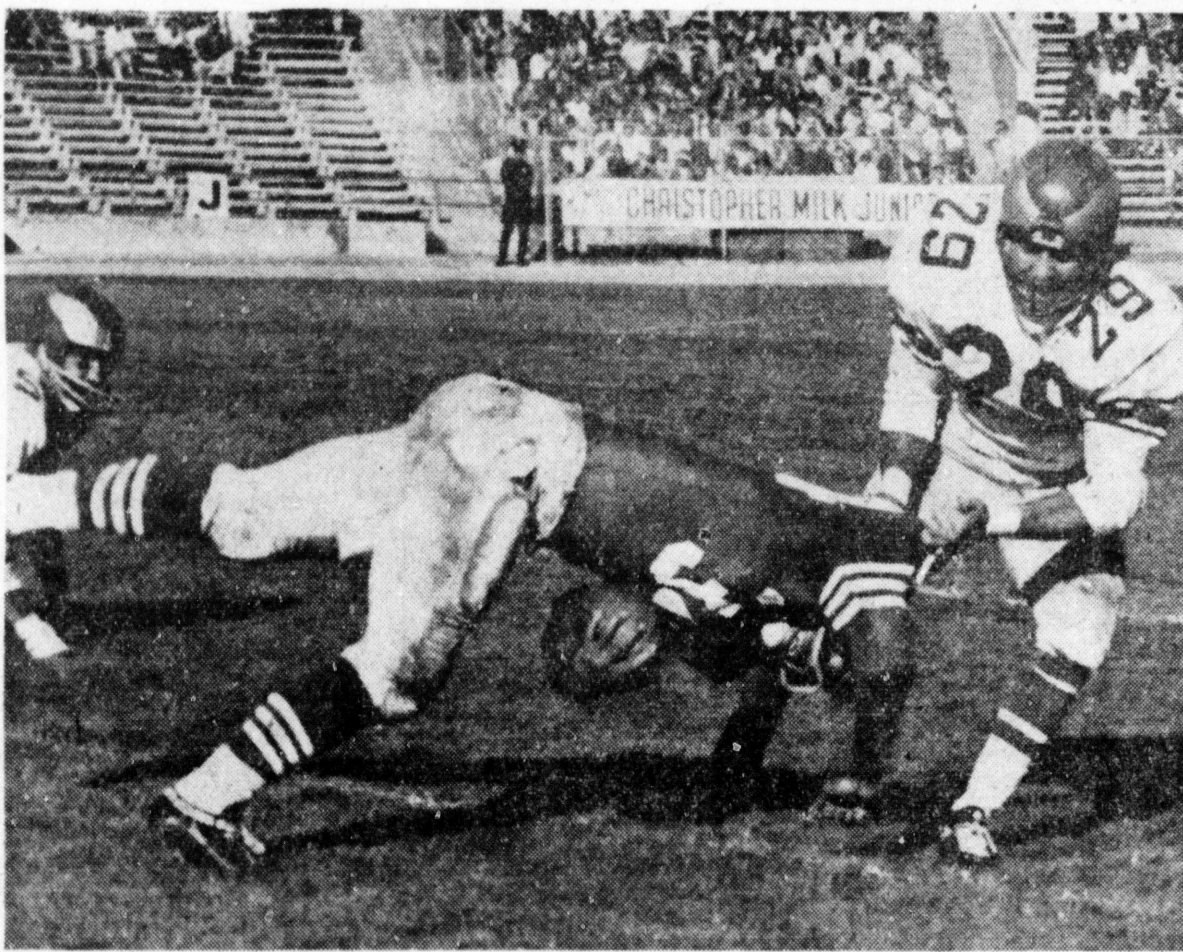

The day was fine, the stands were packed, and the San Francisco 49ers rolled to victory over the Philadelphia Eagles at Kezar Stadium yesterday to open the 1959 National Football League war.

Here, Joe Perry plows over goal line (arrow points to ball) for second 49er touchdown which put the San Franciscans ahead at halftime 14-0. No. 53 is tackle Frank Morze; No. 88, end Clyde Conner. Final score was 24-14.

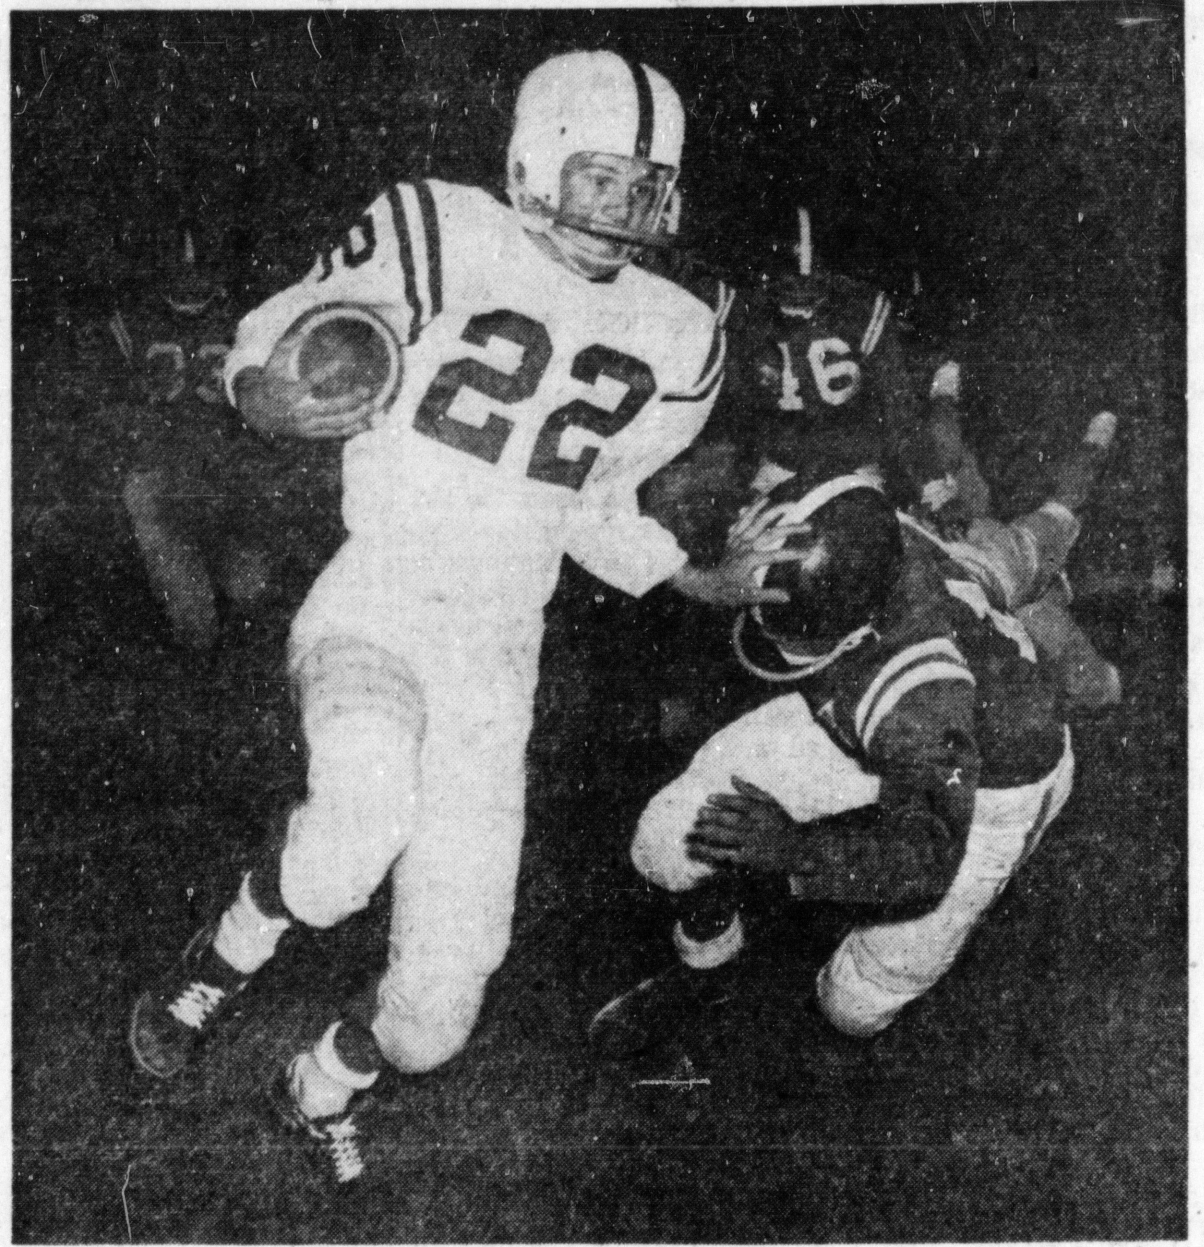

EAGLES DRIVE FOR PAY DIRT—Theron Sapp, Eagle back, is downed just short of touchdown in final quarter of yesterday's game. The Eagles made it over, for their second touchdown, to narrow lead once held at 21-0 by 49ers. But the final score was 24-14 for the Golden Gate team. Forty-Niners in play are linebackers Jerry Tubbs (50) and Matt Hazeltine (55) and halfback Eddie Dove (44).

JOE THE JET DOES A STRETCH—It was the last down in the last quarter of the 49er-Eagle game. And Joe Perry (with ball) should have been glad of it. The Philadelphian giving him the jersey collar stretch is back John Nocera. Tempers flared a few times during the game, but not real ruckus developed.

SAN RAFAEL STAR RAMBLES

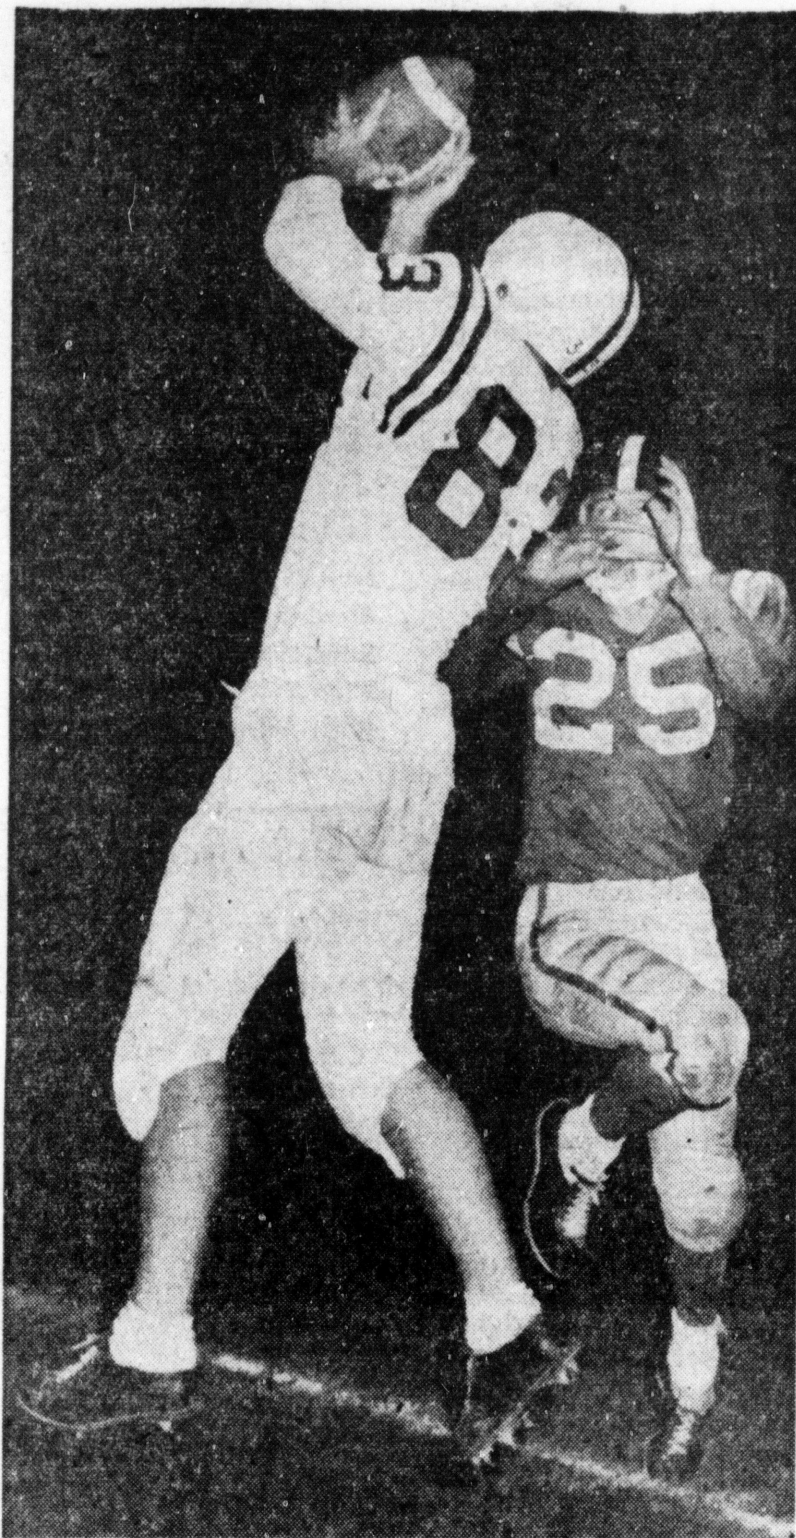

Halfback Billy Roberts of San Rafael stiff-arms an unidentified Marin Catholic tackler during a 16-yard run in first quarter of their Marin County Athletic League game Friday night at San Rafael. Roberts was workhorse and top ground gainer for San Rafael in the Bulldogs' 13-6 victory. Statistics on page 11. Marin players in background are Pete Radieve (33) and Tony Giusti (46).

I-J PHOTOGRAPHERS ON THE BALL

Independent-Journal photographers were on the ball over the weekend covering important football games.

Bob Hax covered the 49er-Eagle contest in Kezar Stadium; Jim Kean was at the San Rafael-Marin Catholic game and Carleton Williams photographed Hamilton Air Force Base's big victory.

COMPLETION—San Rafael end Tay Johnston leaps high to snag six-yard pass from quarterback Billy Knopf in third period. Marin Catholic defender is John Hendrickson.

HAMILTON ROUTS MEMPHIS SAILORS

This is just one of a dozen Hamilton Air Force Base touchdowns scored Saturday in 84-0 rout of the Memphis, Tenn. Navy Base at Hamilton's gridiron. Outrunning Memphis pursuers for this score is Bill McFarland, (31). He intercepted pass and returned it 22 yards to paydirt late in third quarter to put Hamilton in 70-0 lead. Other Hamilton players watching McFarland scoot are guards Kenneth Lunn (66) and Carl Beck (62).

FOUR-HANDED GAME—Hamilton's Charley Page (86) and Harry Dukes had the same idea on this second half play against Memphis as both went high to snag a pass from Paul Magtutu. Page came down with it for a sizeable gain as Hamilton's passing and running attack completely overwhelmed the visitors. Memphis player, with arms outstretched in vain, is Leo Hawkins.

FINISH WITH A FLOURISH — Mason Rudolph, fledgling pro from Clarksville, Tenn., explodes from trap on the last hole in the Golden Gate Golf Championship. His ball landed 12 feet from cup and he two putted for a par and final round two under par 60 to win the title by two strokes over Dow Fisterwald and Bob Goalby. His total score for 54 holes was 275. It was the first tournament win for Rudolph since he joined the tour only a short time ago. (AP Wire-photo)

ANNIVERSARY GIFT

Rudolph Captures In G.G. Tourname

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It was handsome young Mason Rudolph's wedding anniversary and the Tennessee pro golfer told his bride of a year: "Carol, it sure would be nice to take away a four digit check from here."

The 25-year-old sharpshooter from Clarksville, Tenn., playing his first year on the professional circuit, proceeded to do just that yesterday, winning the Golden Gate Open Tournament with a low score of 275 and taking home a check for $6,400.

Husky Bob Goalby, a powerful hitter from Crystal River, Fla., and the veteran Dow Fisterwald, of Tequesta, Fla., both had chances to jump into contention just before Rudolph, playing in the last three holes, came in. But, although both shot super golf in their final rounds, they finished tied at 277. Each won $3,050.

Other close up finishers included Jerry Barber of Los Angeles, and Don Whitt, Borrego Springs, Calif., both with 278 for $2,050 apiece. Jacobs and Bill Casper of Apple Valley had 279s. Tommy Bolt and Jim Ferree had 280s.

At 281 were Bob Rosburg, Gene Littler, Mike Souchak, Eric Monti and Doug Sanders. Ken Venturi, playing with a split finger, had trouble controlling his irons on the final round and faded to 284.

Meadow, Marin Golf Clubs Crown Women's Champions

Two Marin County golf clubs crowned women's champions in tournament playoffs last Friday.

For the second straight year Mrs. John Cann became the Meadow Club champion while the Marin Golf Club at Loma Verde crowned Mrs. Hal White as its queen of the links.

MEADOW CLUB

Mrs. Cann successfully defended her title by downing Mrs. W. B. Smith, 4 and 3 in the championship flight finals.

Other winners:

First Flight—Mrs. E. M. Brown d. Mrs. C. T. Rothweiler, 3 and 1.

Second Flight—Mrs. John McGee, d. Mrs. Richard Boyd, 7 and 6.

Third Flight—Mrs. Paul McArdle d. Mrs. W. W. Milikin 7 and 5.

Fourth Flight—Mrs. J. J. Cooper d. Mrs. J. R. Hubbell, 2 up.

Fifth Flight—Mrs. Mel Wolfe d. Mrs. W. L. St. Sure, 19th.

Other award winners: Mrs. Arnold Nutting, consolation prize; Mrs. Carl Boergershausen, eclectic tourney; Mrs. Paul Spengler, Trans-Mississippi Pin; Mrs. E. C. Peterson, 54-hole tournament; Mrs. Harry Hensler, senior tournament.

Prizes included clocks and watches.

MARIN GOLF CLUB

Mrs. White captured her title by downing Mrs. Ed Abramson, 3 and 2.

Second Flight—Mrs. Eugene

Dolan d. Mrs. Elmer Murray, 2 and 1.

Third Flight—Mrs. Nate Blumenfeld d. Mrs. Walter Goldman, 18th.

Fourth Flight—Mrs. George Spence d. Mrs. Mel Bleaden, 1 up.

Winners of defeated flights were Mesdames Rudy Sampson, C. D. Matlock, Dean Bush and Gordon Wardlaw.

Mrs. Ron Gemmell won the consolation flight.

MILL VALLEY

At the Mill Valley women's golf club Friday Mrs. George Prydz shot an 80-16—64 to tie with Mrs. W. B. Smillie 87-23—64 for the Sabella Trophy for September.

A "choice of 12" tournament was the event of the day and Mrs. Smillie took first place in Class A with 34%. Mrs. Hugh Cavalli had 37 and Mrs. Prydz and Mrs. Fred Fellows tied for third place with 37½.

Class B—Mrs. George Richardson, 33; Mrs. A. E. Poarch, 34½; Mrs. Henry Seagle, 36½.

WINNERS of the three-month eclectic tournament at Marin Golf Club were:

Mrs. Fred Apostoli, low gross with a 70; Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, low net with 51.

Class A—Mrs. Fred Ahnert, 55; Mrs. Eugene Dolan, 57; Mrs. Rudy Sampson, 58.

Class B—Mrs. Meyer Schwartz, 53; Mrs. Albert Wilson, 57; Mrs. Ed Wright, 58.

Class C—Mrs. Henry Helbig, 56; Mrs. Dean Bush and Mrs. Nate Blumenfeld, each 58.

Drake Eleven Beaten By Analy, 32 To 0

By STEVE COOK

An inexperienced Drake High School varsity football team, plagued by fumbles and intercepted passes, went down to a 32-0 defeat to the Analy Tigers Saturday night in a non-league encounter at Sebastopol.

Analy began the scoring early in the first quarter after recovering a Drake fumble. The Tigers then marched 70 yards for the first touchdown.

The alert Tigers recovered three pirate fumbles and intercepted six of their passes.

JOHNSON STARS

Drake quarterback Sam Johnson was the man who provided most of the Pirates' thrills. One of his best plays was a 65-yard return of an Analy kickoff to the Tiger 25. But this was in vain as Analy picked off a pass to halt the threat.

Analy's most exciting touchdown came late in the second period when halfback Bill Ito ran 80 yards from scrimmage. Except for this play, all of Analy's scoring was set up by Drake errors.

Drake opens the Marin County Athletic League season Friday night against Marin Catholic at Kentfield, 8 o'clock.

Southern Cal Climbs In Grid Ratings

NEW YORK (UPI)—Louisiana State's defending national college football champions retained the No. 1 spot in the United Press International ratings today with Northwestern and Iowa, a pair of Big Ten powers, second and third.

The first big weekend of the season produced a shakedown of the leading teams in the ratings of the 35 leading coaches who comprise the UPI board. Besides Northwestern and Iowa, two teams which made big advances in the second weekly rankings were Southern California and Notre Dame.

L. S. U., which has yielded only three points to its opponents in winning its first two games, was the No. 1 choice of 25 coaches on the 35-member UPI rating board. The Tigers' total of 330 points also was 87 more than Northwestern's.

Army was ranked fourth behind Iowa and Mississippi was fifth, followed in order by Southern California, Clemson, Texas and Wisconsin, with Notre Dame and Ohio State tied for 10th place.

No Relief In Sight For Bears

BERKELEY (AP)—"We are capable of much better football and we are not going to let one game ruin our season," Coach Pete Elliott said after his California Bears took a 42-12 licking from Iowa.

Then he added, "We got our brains beat out again," referring to Iowa's 38-12 Rose Bowl victory.

Cal plays unbeaten and unscored on Texas at Austin Saturday in a game that will be nationally televised.

The Longhorns whipped Maryland 26-0 and the week before shut out Nebraska 20-0.

After next Saturday's game the Bears still won't see any breather in sight for they must play host to Notre Dame on Oct. 10.

That Iowa beating was the worst absorbed by the Bears since UCLA dumped them 47-0 in 1955.

It is difficult to say which Iowa runner hurt Cal the most —Don Horn, who scored two touchdowns; Bob Jeter, who scored one; Ray Jacuh, who overaged 7.54 yards a carry in 11 tries; John Brown, who averaged 10 yards a shot in 7 carries, or Gene Mosley, a fullback who averaged 14 yards for each of his three carries.

Or was it quarterbacks Olen Treadway, with eight completions in 12 pass attempts for 127 yards, or Wilburn Hollis, 5 of 8 for 50 yards?

California struck with stunning swiftness, quarterback

Larry Parque hitting halfback Bob Willis on the first play on a pass-run that carried to the Iowa 10. Grover Garvin scored on the next play.

But after that Iowa took charge. It was 28-6 at the half. California scored its other touchdown in the third quarter on quarterback Wayne Crow's 36-yard dash.

Injuns Thrilling, But Still Winless

STANFORD (AP)—The Stanford Indians are providing the thrills, but Coach Jack Curd would rather have a victory Saturday at the expense of College of the Pacific.

In two losses so far, Stanford has fallen 28-27 before Oregon and 16-14 before strong Wisconsin of the Big Ten.

Although their showings have been good and quarterback Dick Norman proved a sensation with the forward pass, the Stanford record reads 0-2.

Norman hit on 17 of his 25 passes against Wisconsin despite a rainstorm, connecting with end Chris Burford for a 54-yard touchdown that put the score at 16-6.

The second Stanford tally came with just 1:46 remaining as Skip Face capped a 72-yard drive with a two-yard run after taking a pitchout. Norman ran over the two-point conversion.

For his great game, in which his passes collected 211 yards, Norman was named back of the week by the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities.

Wisconsin's points came in the first half as Tom Wiesner plunged four yards twice for touchdowns, Karl Holzwarth booted a 26-yard field goal and a conversion.

Curd, talking afterward about the scoring pass play to Burford, said "he had been running on pass patterns, but this time he faked to the sidelines and cut straight down the middle."

The Stanford end and captain caught three other Norman passes for 11, 10 and 11 yards. Ben Robinson added six catches of 8, 10, 15, 7, 7 and 19. Flanker Dick Bowers hauled down three for 8; 13 and 9.

It appears the next contest will match the running attack of COP, led by Dick Bass, against the aerial bombardment of the Indians. COP was idle last weekend after an opening loss to Colorado State. Bass, who has suffered from a muscle pull, was expected to be ready.

Cone Cops Cruiser Finale; Marinite Wins At Alameda

By ALFRED MATSON

The Golden Gate Yacht Club race on Saturday for the cruiser contingent marked the finish of the 1959 season and with but 31 boats breasting the starting line, it would seem that the demise was well-timed.

Weather and tidal conditions were well nigh perfect and yet elapsed times were not particularly noteworthy. Leo Cone's Edy Lee of the Golden Gate Y. C. was the overall winner and clinched Class C honors as well.

STATISTICS

Roberts Top Gainer In MCAL Open

Following are individual statistics of Friday night's opening football game of the new Marin County Athletic League, in which San Rafael's Bulldogs defeated the Marin Catholic Wildcats, 13-6.

Billy Roberts, a shifty and fast little halfback, led San Rafael's ball carriers with a net gain of 97 yards in 17 carries. The Bulldogs used only three ball carriers with Ron Rosa picking up 54 yards and Travis Key 25. Key carried a 56-yard swing pass for the winning touchdown in the final minute of action.

Marin Catholic used seven ball carriers with Mike McGraw and John Hendrickson serving as the workhorses, each with 14 carries.

San Rafael used a T-formation with an end split to the left side and a back flankered to the right.

Marin stayed primarily with a spit-T attack, but used a short-punt offense on occasion.

Hamilton Smashes Sailors, 84 To Oh!

Hamilton Air Force power-laden Defenders made it four in a row Saturday afternoon before a packed house at the Hamilton Stadium when they ran rough-shod over a visiting Memphis (Tenn.) Navy Helicat eleven, 84-0.

A total of 12 touchdowns sank the Sailors as the Defenders, paced by big Lou Baldacci, formerly of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Jim Small and Skip Corley, had little difficulty in moving the ball on the ground and in the air to score in every quarter.

High scorer for the locals was halfback Steve Crews with 18 points for three td's, nosing out Baldacci who ran up 17 points via one TD, one field goal and three conversions.

Capitalizing on at least three Memphis fumbles, the Defenders ran up a total of 441 yards both on the ground and in the air, while holding the visitors to a scant 72 yards.

Hamilton Coach Bob Peake used his third string in the closing quarters of the game and the final score came with 52 seconds left to play.

Moscow Gives Nikita Hero's Welcome

Premier Says Talks 'Okay';
Ike's Return Visit Delayed

MOSKOW (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev returned from his American visit today with a declaration that "those who are afraid of coexistence are unwitting tools in promoting the cold war."

The Soviet premier, given a hero's welcome, told a jam-packed throng at the Moscow Sports Palace that the cold war might spark off another armed conflict.

"Then it would be too late to ask questions about coexistence, when atom-bomb-carrying rockets started flying," he said.

Smiling broadly, Khrushchev called out "okay" to welcomers at Moscow Airport on his arrival after a 10-hour, 28-minute flight from the United States.

He spoke the word in English from the top of a ramp leading down from his jet airliner in apparent summary of the results of his tour and talks with President Eisenhower.

He was met by Premier Klementi Y. Voroshilov, Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan and many others in the government. Mrs. Khrushchev followed the premier off the plane.

Khrushchev looked very well. He showed no signs of strain from the flight and the strenuous two weeks which preceded it.

Thousands cheered him and tossed flowers into his car on his 30-mile drive from the airport to the Sports Palace. Beaming and looking well rested, Khrushchev waved back.

At the Sports Palace, before 15,000 or more, he assured the Soviet people that progress was made in lowering tensions. He said Eisenhower showed a statesman-like mind in assessing the situation.

The premier came back with much credit in his own country. He went to the United States hoping to get a joint statement with Eisenhower that war would be renounced as a means of solving international disputes. He got it.

Before his return, Khrushchev spent two hours in front of U.S. television cameras yesterday, discussing his talks with Eisenhower and extolling the achievements of Soviet communism.

In his farewell address he spoke of his meeting with Eisenhower and the President's return trip to the U.S.S.R. next spring as "the beginning of joint efforts in the quest of ways of bringing our two nations closer together and strengthening general peace."

A clue to possibly significant agreement between the two leaders was set out in the final communique issued after they had spent about 21 hours of talking in the misty Catocin Mountains at Camp David, Md., between 6 p.m. Friday and 2:10 p.m. yesterday.

"With respect to the specific Berlin question," the communiqué reported, "an understanding was reached, subject to the approval of other parties directly concerned, that negotiations would be reopened with a view to achieving a solution which would be in the interest of the maintenance of peace."

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the negotiations might be conducted by diplomats, in a foreign ministers conference or at a summit conference.

The communique included what amounted to a renunciation of war as an instrument of foreign policy by Eisenhower and Khrushchev. They agreed, the statement said, that "all outstanding international questions should be settled not by application of force but by peaceful means through negotiations."

It also disclosed that the President's visit to the Soviet Union had been deferred until sometime next spring. It had been expected this fall.

Khrushchev told a televised news conference at the National Press Club that he suggested the spring date when he talked with the President's grandchildren at the Eisenhower farm at Gettysburg Saturday afternoon. He and the children agreed they should accompany the President, he said, and the springtime would be better for that "because everything is in flower then, the weather is warm, nothing is frozen up."

The news conference was one of the highlights of a hectic and memorable day with Khrushchev that Washington officialdom will long remember. It began actually at Camp David where Khrushchev's meeting with Eisenhower, scheduled to end at noon, ran on through luncheon. Khrushchev's 4 p.m. date for a news conference seemed in jeopardy. He just made it after a fast automobile ride with the President to Washington and a quick exchange of farewells when the President left him on the steps at Blair House, across Pennsylvania avenue from the White House.

Little more than an hour later the 65-year-old premier, beaming and bouncy, dashed by limousine back to Blair House briefly, then on to the NBC television studios where he read his speech, with frequent translation stops, for 50 minutes. A quick dinner at Blair House preceded his final automobile drive in the United States—the 15-mile trip to Andrews Field where Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other officials gave him a red carpet sendoff, complete with military honors.

Thus ended the 13-day tour of the country he had longed for years to visit.

Why we built two cars for 1960 . . .
as different as night and day!

On October 2—for the first time in Chevrolet's 49-year history—you will be able to walk into your dealer's showroom and see two totally different kinds of cars. ■ One is the conventional 1960 Chevrolet, brand new in appearance and more beautifully refined and luxurious than you can imagine. ■ The other is unlike any car we or anybody else ever built—the revolutionary Corvair, with the engine in the rear where it belongs in a compact car. ■ We'd like to tell you why we built two such different cars, how we built them—and for whom we built them.

Why two kinds of cars? Because America itself has been going through some big changes in the past few years. Our cities have been straining at their seams. Traffic is jam-packed. Parking space is at a premium.

And our suburbs have spread like wildfire. People are living farther from their work, driving more miles on crowded streets. There is new leisure time—but more things to do. There's a new standard of living—and more need for two cars in the family garage.

In short, America's automobile needs have become so complex that no one kind of car can satisfy them completely. That is why we at Chevrolet, keeping tab on these trends, have had a revolutionary compact car in the planning stages for more than nine years undergoing revisions and refinements.

Consequently, when we decided three years ago to prepare for production of such a car we were ready to build it the way it should be built. There was no need for a hasty "crash" program that would create only a sawed-off version of a conventional-sized car.

That is why the two cars you will see in your dealer's showroom October 2 will be two entirely different kinds of cars—each one designed to best fill the needs it was meant to fill.

One is the conventional '60 Chevrolet—brand new in beauty, with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, a new feeling of sumptuousness and luxury never before attained by any car in its field. There is great V8 power, linked with new thrift, plus Chevrolet's superb (and America's most popular) 6-cylinder engine. It is a traditional car that comes even closer to perfection—in silence, in room, in ease of control, in velvety ride—than any other car we have ever made.

The other is the Corvair, a compact car that is astonishingly different from anything ever built in this country. It has to be—because this is a six-passenger compact car, with a really remarkable performance . . . a car designed specifically to American standards of comfort, to American traffic needs.

The engine is in the rear. Among the basic advantages resulting from this engine location are better traction on a compact 108-inch wheelbase and a practically flat floor. But to be placed in the rear, the engine had to be ultra light and ultra short. So Corvair's engine is totally new—mostly aluminum and air cooled; it weighs about 40 per cent less than conventional engines. It is a "flat" horizontally opposed six—so it is only three cylinders long . . . and that leaves a lot more room for passengers.

Another weight saving: like modern airplanes, the Corvair has no frame; the body-shell supplies its great structural strength . . . it's a welded unit that is virtually squeak- and rattle-free.

The ride is fantastic. But to get it we had to design independent suspension at every wheel; conventional springing would give a compact car a choppy ride. Right now we'll make one prediction: the Corvair will be the only American compact car with this type of suspension system—the only one that rides so comfortably, holds the road so firmly and handles so beautifully.

Now there are two kinds of cars from Chevrolet—because it takes two kinds of cars to serve America's needs today. If you love luxury—the utmost in luxury—and if you want generous interior space, breath-taking performance, automatic drives and power assists—then the conventional '60 Chevrolet may be your choice.

If easy parking, traffic agility and utmost economy are high on your list—then you should seriously consider the Corvair. But the best thing to do is to look these two new cars over at your Chevrolet dealer's . . . take them out for a drive. It may be that the only logical choice for your family between two cars like this is—both. They make a perfect pair.

CHEVY MOUNTS THE ENGINE TO MATCH THE CAR

The front-mounted engine provides most efficient weight distribution in a conventional-sized Chevrolet, splitting the load almost evenly between front and rear wheels. Since a 4-door Chevy sedan weighs 3,550 lbs., this design puts adequate weight in the rear for sure-footed traction and road-grip while giving a solid, consistently balanced big-car ride.

A rear-mounted engine gives the best weight distribution for a lighter, compact car like the 2,340-lb. Corvair. This design puts some 60% of the weight on the rear wheels for extra traction in cornering and driving on ice, mud or snow. Corvair, by avoiding nose-heaviness of front-engine compact cars, also gives you better riding, handling and braking characteristics.

San Rafael Presbyterian Society Sets Luncheon, Bazaar Oct. 8

Mrs. Leroy Wilkie will have as her co-chairmen Mrs. John Bagshaw and Mrs. Josephine Young when the annual Fall Bazaar is held Thursday, Oct. 8, at the San Rafael Presbyterian Church. The bazaar is sponsored by the Women's Societies under the presidency of Mrs. Samuel D. Archibald.

According to tradition the luncheon will be held between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. with the Vine Trumbull group providing the waitresses. Mrs. James Goodale, outstanding for her floral decor, will be in charge of the decorations.

The usual booths will have a wide assortment of gifts, planned to please people of all ages.

A sewing group and a group of women talented in creating arrangements for holiday decor have been busy for months in their departments.

Mrs. Fedora Ross is known far and wide for her artistic ability in flower and dried arrangements. It is with great pleasure the women have had her leadership. Working with Mrs. Ross are Mesdames J. W. Haynes, William Patching, Charles Olson, H. L. Anderson, Nelson Hall, Emerson Yates, Henry Steinhauser, Ulrich Hinrichs, Harold Hinrichs, W. J. Schulz, Leonard Murphy, G. B. Flood, Ralph Holchster, Howard Hoenes, Roy Balke, Kendall Mabie, Richard Harden, Edward Thompson and Miss Minnie Henley.

SEWING GROUP

The sewing group comes from Mrs. William Patching's Circle and includes Mesdames Sidney Horen, J. W. Haynes, Nelson Hall, Ulrich Hinrichs, Charles Olson, H. L. Anderson, Robert Petersen, O. H. Holmberg, Dora Coche, Helen Ahman, James Campbell, D. S. McFarlane, Lula Maranello, E. G. Thompson, Arthur Coutts, Ann Adams, R. A. Chisholm, Charles Gettemy and William Kinz.

CANDY BOOTH

Miss Betty Connor, who heads the Evening Circle, is chairman of the Candy Booth. The Evening Circle is composed of Mesdames J. J. Canoles, Georgia Cole, Olga M. Dunn, Mary Gowland, Ruth Greer, Jessie Leavell, Katie Murchison, Julia Nissum, A. G. Purvis, Jean Qualm, Eva Reed, Helen Reinhardt, Belle Rhodes, Myrtle L. Roby, William M. Sewell, Daisy Smith, Mildred Vickery, Clara Miller, William M. Pollock, Margaret Iverson, A. M. Shirley, Estella G. Smith, Miss Betty Cannon, Miss Belle McPhail and Dr. Katherine Leicester.

WHITE ELEPHANT

The March and May groups are planning booths for white elephants and plants. Chairman is Mrs. John Bagshaw with co-leaders Mrs. James Campbell, Mrs. Nelson Hall and Mrs. Kenneth Walkmeister.

The March Circle otherwise includes Mesdames Robert Bruce, Nettie Tapp, G. L. Rice, Violet Chevalier, M. E. Hazel, Edith Kirner, Ralph Murphy, Edith Richardson, Paul Streett, Detrick Vossbrink, Jane Wilson and George Barton.

In the May Circle with Mrs. Bagshaw and Mrs. Walkmeister are Mesdames H. H. Cleaves, S. H. Diehl, Fred Cebalo, A. M. Chiaroni, James Cowie, S. H. Diehl, Herbert Hickman, T. J. Kelly, Evelyn Mabie, Maranello, Ralph Oliver, Ray Shaver, A. E. Straub, Violet Turner and William W. Howe.

FOOD BOOTH

Three groups will have charge of the food. Mrs. Charles Tacchi is chairman. In Mrs. Tacchi's April Group are Mesdames Vernon Bauman, Sidney Horen, Howard Hoenes, Amanda Lechner, D. D. McFarlane, John MacPhail, Robert Nelson, Joe Petersen, Rudolph Scott, Henry Steinhauser, Josephine Young and Miss Georgia Winttingham. Mrs. Leroy Wilkie's February Circle includes Mesdames J. F. Barnes, Clifford Bartlett, Frank Boileau, Peter Cazassa, Anna Meagor, J. A. Meddaugh, M. S. Orr, R. T. Sil-vernale, Katherine Snow, F. M. Tiece, Emerson Yates and Miss Minnie Henley.

Mrs. William Ledbetter's September group includes Mesdames E. G. Thompson, Earl Barnt, J. S. Goodale, George Arnold, L. Severt Gaudstad, J. J. Koepfel, Philip Nathan, Arthur Rosenhahn, J. W. Rowe, Seeley Vander Veer, Duane Wallace and Miss Metta Jepson.

HANDKERCHIEF TREE

The December group, led by Mrs. Raymond Thayer, has planned a beautiful "Handkerchief Tree." In her circle are Mesdames Gordon Dixon, G. B. Flood, Ida Hicks, Ralph Holchster, Sue Hogeboom, William P. Murray, Raymond Morrison, Carl Schieck, Horace Shadle, Mary Titus and F. C. Toscano.

Under the title "Nifty Knacks," attendants will find many attractive articles. This booth has been planned by the Vine Trumbull Circle under the leadership of Mrs. B. L. Russell and Mrs. William Wilson.

Included in this circle are Mesdames Sylvester Fickbohm, Sidney Frank, Glen Adrian, Edwin Austin, F. E. Bone, Harry Carpenter, John Chapman, Howard Cluche, Russell Clark, W. M. Davis, Earl Dixon, Lester Dohn, Arthur England, Andrew Ferrier, Gladys Fishel, Arthur Ford, Theo Gilman, George Goodrich, Richard Hardin, Carl Heidenreich, Alice Johnson, Maurice Johnson, Margaret King, Robert Lindskog, Leonard Majore, Melvin Moore, Everett Murphy, Leonard Murphy, Donald Murray, Ted Murray, O. D. Oliphant, Eugene Peebles, John Pitcher, Elmer Nielsen, Clayton Rice, Linn Roberts, William Scoville, Glenn Smith, John Southmayd, Thomas Stark, Warren Tracy, Kenneth Walkmeister, Jack Wittman, A. R. Worthington and Miss Gretchen Eden.

In their booth will be dressed dolls, Christmas cards, gift boxes, wrappings and other miscellaneous articles.

Mt. Carmel Library Guild To Stage Fair

Originally formed as a study group by five members who pooled resources to buy books, the Mt. Carmel Library Guild has grown to a membership of 43.

At a recent meeting a constitution was adopted by the group whose aim is to make the Mt. Carmel Library a Marin County Catholic Information Center.

First activity this month will be organization of discussion and study groups under suggested topics of California missions, Catholic culture in America, works of contemporary Catholic writers, church history, moral theology applied to present-day problems, and early Christian literature.

The library is the only parish library to have installed the Dewey Decimal System, and guild members say they are grateful to the Paullist Library in San Francisco for assistance with the project.

Library hours are 2 to 4 p.m. weekdays and after each mass on Sundays. The library is under the direction of Mrs. John Farnham.

The children's book section is increased regularly with books purchased from donations given in memory of Mary Grace Costello by her daughter.

JACK O' LANTERN BALL SET OCT. 24 AT CORTE MADERA

Saturday, Oct. 24 has been set as the date for the annual Jack O' Lantern Ball, sponsored by the St. Sebastian's Men's Club of St. Sebastian Parish, Kentfield-Greenbrae.

The Ball this year will be an informal affair at the Corte Madera Recreation Center. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock and a buffet supper will be served at midnight. Roland Biancalana is serving as general chairman assisted by Robert Burkhardt. Committee chairmen are as follows: Edward Charbonneau, entertainment; Donald Spaan, tickets and admissions; George Stempel, decorations; Robert P. Smith, cleanup; William Fuetsch and Victor Donati, food. Women's coordinator is Mrs. Dee J. McGonigle.

Tickets for the affair may be obtained by calling George Stempel, Donald Spaan.

ian church. In the foreground is Cynthia Russell, daughter of the president of the Vine Trumbull group. Pictures show only a few of the many articles which will be offered for sale. Luncheon will be served between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. (Independent-Journal photos)

Eagles Auxiliary Has Dinner Party

San Rafael Auxiliary 256, Fraternal Order of Eagles recently had a pot luck dinner at the IOOF Hall in San Rafael, attended by members, prospective members, their husbands and friends. Guest speaker was Frank Tomasoni of San Francisco, district director of Aerie 2, FOE.

Mrs. Hubert Fenstermaker, entertainment chairman, arranged games and a skit. The dinner chairman, Mrs. C. D. Curtin, was assisted by Mesdames Italo Lanci, John Carminati, Joseph Serna, Mary Bruni, Olive Wall and Roy Curry.

MANNEQUIN

League Will Greet New Provisionals

"Glad to have you aboard" will be the greeting of Mannequin League hostesses as they welcome provisional members at a get-acquainted cocktail party to be held on Capt. Edward I. Veitch's twin-engine cabin cruiser, the 'Arequipa' at the San Francisco Marina Yacht Harbor, on Oct. 11.

The nautical affair will feature a tour of the Bay earlier in the day for League members, with Captain Veitch at the helm of his 64-foot boat, and the cocktail affair will get underway at 1600, (4 p.m.) as hundreds and friends join the group aboard the 'Arequipa' at her berth at the Yacht Harbor to celebrate the initial gathering of the recently formed Mannequin League of Marin.

Volunteer models who comprise the League's membership plan to collectively offer their time and talents as mannequins at Bay area benefit fashion shows; and shops may also obtain their modeling services on a charitable basis.

The group will function for self-improvement, charitable, and social purposes, with refresher and training courses, guest lectures on photographic make-up and hair-styling among other subjects, and fund-raising events on their agenda for the coming year.

At the ship and shore Oct. 11 event to greet provisionals, Mesdames John Malone, Alvin J. Harris, Rudy Lang, E. W. Walters, and James Zierolf and their husbands will be Mannequin League committee members. Mrs. William Deeths, Mrs. George Coburn, and Mrs. Lewis Denton.

Also on hand to "hoist the cocktail flag" aboard the 'Arequipa' at eight bells will be Messrs. and Mesdames Eugene Wilson, John Bellamy Jr., Luciano Sabella and Messrs. Lewis Denton, William Deeths, and George Coburn.

Novato Forms Junior Club Of Federation

Installation of officers of the newly formed Novato Junior Women's Club, California Federation of Women's Clubs, was held on Wednesday at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Robert W. Melton. Mrs. Virgil Curtis, Senior Women's Club co-ordinator for the Pacifica District, assisted Mrs. Michael Rodman, president of the Junior Women's Club Pacifica District, in the installation ceremony.

Officers of the Novato group are Mesdames Alan Chisholm, president; George McDaniel, vice president; William Washburn, recording secretary; Eugene Bittle, corresponding secretary; Leonard Watson, treasurer and Robert Metzger, parliamentarian. Attending the luncheon also were the Mesdames Robert W. Melton, Marlin Olsen, Henry Chapman, Amos Brown, and Stephen Shoemaker.

The next meeting will be Oct. 6 at the home of Mrs. Washburn, 22 Los Allondras, Novato, at 8 p.m.

West End P-TA Plans Family Night Wednesday

Parent-Teacher activities at the West End School will start off with a hearty and delicious "bang" at the big family night potluck dinner Wednesday evening.

The committee for this annual affair consists of the entire executive board, and is headed by Mrs. Earl Dixon, parliamentarian, and assisted by Mrs. Lee Tanforan, food and fun day chairman. Dinner will be served from 5:45 p.m.

Mrs. William Hood, who serves on the executive board as tea chairman, is handling the arrangements with the parents. Each family is asked to bring its own silverware and plates, and milk for the children if it is desired, as well as a hot dish, salad, or cake. Coffee will be supplied by the P-TA, served by Mrs. Thomas Cardoza, librarian and Boy Scout chairman, and Mrs. Roland Monti, magazine chairman. Tables to seat the 205 students of West End School and their families will be set up in the area behind the school, and decorated by Mrs. Louis Yuvan, historian. The teachers and Miss Edwina Codoni, principal, will provide all the rolls and butter for the party.

This will be the first opportunity for many parents to meet their children's teachers and to welcome the new members of the staff to West End School. With the exceptions of Mr. Benedict, vice principal and sixth grade teacher, Mrs. Eva Longley, third grade teacher, and Mrs. Cherie Mae Buoy, fifth grade teacher, the others are all new to the San Rafael School District. These are Mrs. Ruth Sempell, kindergarten; Mrs. Reiko Hamai, first grade; Mrs. Barbara Gillespie, second grade; and Miss Jane Penell, fourth grade.

Parents are cordially invited to visit the classrooms after dinner, and become acquainted with the teachers and the parents of other children in the classes.

75 Guests Are Welcomed At AAUW Membership Tea

The annual fall membership tea of Marin Branch, AAUW, was held recently in lovely bungalow-decorated Alexander Hall at the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo. Seventy-five guests were welcomed at the tea which is the opening event of the group's calendar year.

Among the many who served on the official welcoming committee were Mrs. Hugh G. Marchant, branch president, Mrs. Clyde J. Curley, Jr., tea chairman, and Mrs. Joseph E. Hickerson, hospitality chairman.

Prospective members were able to meet representatives of many of AAUW's sections and learn of their activities and planned programs. Each section had a table with an eye-catching display to attract newcomers, and members were on hand to answer questions. In addition to section activities, Marin Branch holds regular monthly general meetings which includes speakers, luncheons, a Christmas party to which husbands are invited, and in February, the annual Fellowship Fun(d) Fest.

New and prospective members who signed the branch's guest book were: Mesdames

William Booth, Courtland Smith, William Lindow, Sidney Geiger, John Phelps, Edward French, Tore Noren, Harold Graves, R. F. Royal, G. A. Harwood, John Thayer, Donna Williams, Lawrence Solari, James Crabb, M. E. Hinrichs, Mary Howard, Rodney Burgett, Gerard Enright, David Dryfoos, C. S. 'Venetian Fantasy' To Be Theme Of Annual Silver Fantasy Ball

The Junior Social Service Auxiliary of Marin's "Silver Fantasy Ball" plans are well under way announces Mrs. Richard Savelli, chairman of this gay event.

The theme is "Venetian Fantasy" and guests will: Pass a fountain spouting colored water in the foyer; see silver gondolas with gay gondoliers and look up at balcony scenes.

The orchestra will play under a huge Venetian canopy with ruby red poles. It will be a "night in old Venice"; but all decorated in a silver fantasy. In charge of decorations is Mrs. Charles Brown.

On her committee are the Mesdames Joseph Hufacker, Louis Leoncini Jr., Anthony Loughran, John Malone, Alex

McClure, Fred Nelson, Denis Parsons, John Reid, Etienne Rolin, Chester Root, Frank Cognato, Donald Dalpino, Leonard d'Artenay, Lawrence Fambri, Frank Fradelizio, James Gilmartin, William Greving, Ernest Haenggi, Charles Hasler, Ronald Hill, Frank Soares and LeRoy Wilkie.

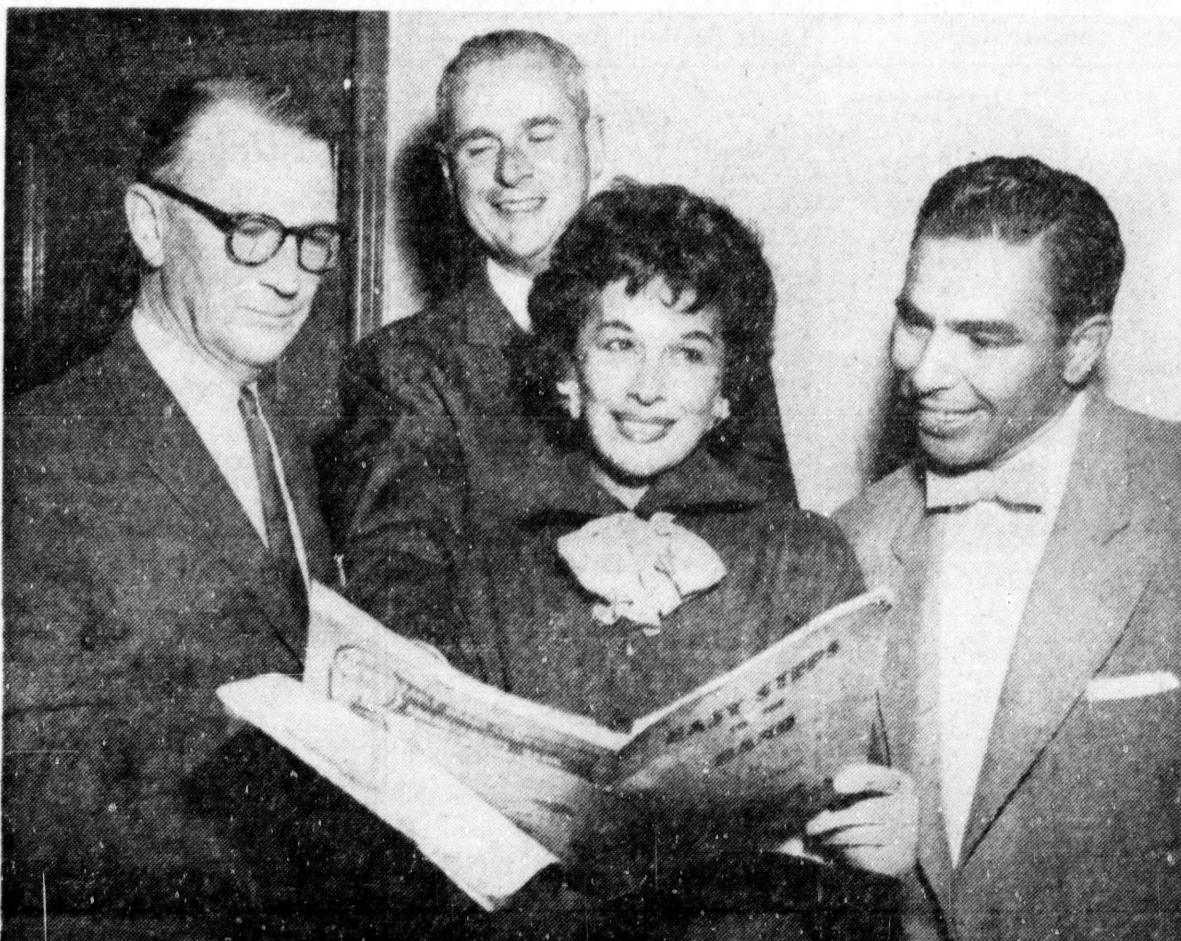

In charge of Way and Means is Mrs. George Curry. She announces first prize is an all expense Las Vegas weekend for two. Second prize is a Disneyland trip for four. Third prize is a huge holiday basket. Aiding her are the Mesdames Charles Owen, Sidney Dorn, Walter Leptien, James Gilmartin, Emil Bettini, Alan Pedrol, Harold Morelli, John Streckfus, William Barr, Robert Mobley and James Sanford.

Invitations are being extended to more than 400 guests. Mrs. Henry Chapman is chairman of this committee with the Mesdames Louis Bartolini, Robert Davis, John Weaver, Edward Stoner, Raymond Lynch and Richard Powers.

Announcing that reservations are limited, Mrs. James Bowler, co-chairman of the ball, has requested that replies be made early.

Proceeds from this Eighth Silver Fantasy Ball go to aid the child welfare program of the Juniors. This is their major fund raising event. The 250 club members from the young set in Marin combine their talents and efforts to have this grand ball.

TALENT SCOUTS preparing the groundwork for the "Talent Show of 1959" to be presented by Court St. Raphael's Catholic Daughters Oct. 16 are, from left, Marin Superior Court

Judge Thomas F. Keating, State Sen. Jack McCarthy, Mrs. Alexander Bovee and Michael Lopez. Keating will step down from his court bench to judge audience reaction to performers. (Independent-Journal photo)

Outdoor Art Club Will Hear Talk By Dr. Bertrand

"Notes of a Footloose Philosopher" is the title of the talk Dr. Raoul Bertrand of the San Francisco State College will give on Oct. 8 for the home day meeting of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

The program will follow a sandwich and salad luncheon scheduled for 12:30 p.m.

Dr. Bertrand has traveled extensively all over the world, was educated in Europe, and is a well known commentator on Asian and world affairs for British and Canadian broadcasting systems.

He has lectured for the United States State Department at many German universities and for the Canadian Ministry of National Defense at military bases. He is also author of numerous articles and essays in both English and French.

Before coming to San Francisco State College he was chairman for eight years of the department of philosophy of the American University of Beirut at Beirut, Lebanon.

Presidents' Assembly To Meet For Luncheon In Kentfield

The fall luncheon meeting of the Presidents' Assembly of Marin has been set for 12 o'clock on Monday, Oct. 5, at the Woodlands Restaurant, Kentfield.

The Assembly, whose membership consists of presidents, past and present, of Marin County Federated Clubs, is itself a member of the California and General Federation of Women's Clubs. Heading the group this year is Mrs. Thomas Cusick of Kentfield.

The luncheon will be followed by a business meeting and entertainment at the nearby Tamalpais Centre Women's Club. A motion picture, "Wild Flowers of the West," an outstanding film of the beautiful colors and varieties of western flowers, will be shown.

Chairmen for the day are Mesdames Emmet L. Rixford, Sausalito and Clyde D. Lightbody, San Anselmo; reservations; Emile Reillac, Kentfield, decorations; Sylvester J. McAtee, Sausalito, awards; Paul A. Hammer, Fairfax and William B. Newman, Mill Valley, dessert and coffee.

A dessert card party is planned for late October with details to be announced later.

Bel Aire Unit Of Reed P-TC Meets Wednesday

"Past, Present and Future Growth of the Reed Union School District" will be considered at the first meeting of the program year of the Bel Aire Unit of the Reed Parent-Teacher Club. The unit will meet Wednesday, Sept. 30 at 8 p.m. in the Reed School Auditorium, according to Mrs. Craig Gilbert, president.

Discussing the topic will be Erwin Farley, representing the school board and Paul Stouffer, superintendent of schools. John Fitch, principal of Bel Aire School will introduce the teaching staff of the school and the personnel of special pupil services.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting and parents new to the district or the school are especially invited to attend.

Members of the board of directors of the Bel Aire unit for the coming year have been announced by Mrs. Gilbert. They are: Mesdames E.A. Harbridge, vice president; Joseph Christian, secretary; Meredith Meser, treasurer; Donald Mitchell, program chairman; Robert Naldski, room mother staffer; John Maxson, hospitality; Joseph Ryan, membership; J. W. Ferris, Salvage Shop staffer; Lester Gorsline, library chairman; Donald Perry, library staffer.

Other members are Mesdames William Richtman, public relations; Richard Kenney, children's activities; James Gudgel, hot dog chairman; Hal Green, Book Fair representative and Miss Pauline Scott, teachers' representative.

JUNIOR THEATER

Luncheons Planned Prior To Tomorrow's Playreading

Several luncheons will be held in the Tiburon area tomorrow preceding the playreading of "Teahouse of the August Moon" at the San Francisco Yacht Club. Garff B. Wilson, professor of speech and drama at the University of California will be the reader at the dessert and tea which will start at 1 p.m. Proceeds will benefit the Belvedere-Tiburon Unit of the Junior Theater.

Mrs. James E. Knox will entertain Mrs. Harold De Pue, county chairman for the Junior Theater of Marin and Mesdames Henry Broderick, Joseph Crammer, Robert Bastian, A. H. Trobber, Warren Finke, Erwin Farley, Walter Conner, John Beckett, Richard Cross Donald Pickett. Other guests will be Mesdames Robert Kirchmann, Ron Crawford, John Del Mar, Robert Wine- man, Roger Naden; John F. McCarthy and Mrs. Knox' sister-in-law Mrs. Robert Knox of Mill Valley.

At her Hacienda Terrace home, Mrs. Talbott will entertain Mesdames Lester Gorsline, Paul Hantzsch, Richard Hammond, Robert Evans, Larry Coy, John Wederit and Jeanne Kittredge, H. A. Tomrose and George Banning.

Mrs. E. R. Jerome of Tiburon has invited Mesdames Richard DeKay, Robert Holtermann, Don Herget, Henry Almestad, Win Kahls, Irving Halpern, M. W. Neal, Lorne Tanner, Thomas Fitzgerald, O. J. Bruderer, and P. Dunlap Smith, and Manuel Oliviera.

Enjoying lunch at the home of Mrs. George Berticevich in Hill Haven with its panoramic view of the Bay Area will be Mesdames Fred Dupis, Joseph Ryan, Ted Steiger, Frank York- is, John Saia, Milton Poppet, Elmer Boyden, Harold Green, Rolf Beere. Also invited are Mesdames Gerald Frelson, Harry Winblad, Lloyd Bird, Robert Williams, Robert Fleming and Helen Issel.

Mrs. Walter Noll of Lyford Cove has invited Mesdames

Schneider, William von Lackum, Franklin Birdsall, George Aceves, George McKegney, Luther Conover and Paul Laffer- ty.

Also entertaining a few friends at luncheon will be Mrs. Walter Buchan.

Professor Wilson, who has his Ph.D. from Cornell is special assistant to the president of the University. In the summers of 1952 and 1953 he led drama and theater tours through Europe attending several festivals including those at Salzburg, Edinburgh and Stratford-on-Avon.

"Teahouse" is a comedy in three acts by John Patrick and was adapted from a novel by Vern Snider. It is one of the few plays to win both the Critics Award and Pulitzer Prize (1953-54). Originally produced in New York by Maurice Evans it starred David Wayne and John Forsyth.

Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Tri Deltas To Meet

The first meeting of the fall season of the Marin County Alliance of Delta Delta Delta will be held tomorrow, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Samuel Crowell, Loch Lomond.

Plans will be formulated for the annual fund raising luncheon to be held at the Meadow Club, Wednesday, Oct. 2.

Mrs. David Brady, presiding president, sends a special invitation to all Tri Delta who are new to the area, to attend the meeting.

Pledged To Alpha Phi

Among the Alpha Phi pledges at the University of California, Berkeley are Ann May- hew Solinsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Solinsky III, and Susan Dinkelspiel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Dinkelspiel, both of Kent Woodlands, and Katherine Elizabeth Hinman, whose parents are Dr. and Mrs. Allen T. Hinman of Ross.

Pets Unlimited Auxiliary Plans Champagne Party

November 18 has been circled on Pets Unlimited Auxiliary members' calendars as the date of their traditional champagne dancing party to aid the San Francisco animal shelter.

The 6 o'clock cocktail affair will be held at the Women's Athletic Club and tickets may be obtained in Marin from committee members, Mesdames Gratton Phillip, Belvedere; Edson Adams, San Anselmo, and Lewis Denton, Ross.

Change Of Place

The literary section of the Outdoor Art Club will meet in the Library of the Clubhouse on Oct. 1 instead of in the Mill Valley Public Library, according to an announcement by Miss Lois Walker, section chairman.

She has also announced that George Mardikian, having been called to Washington, will not be the speaker for the November meeting.

Camp Taylor Setting For Guild Picnic

A spontaneous fashion show was presented by members of Sonny Hills Belvedere Guild No. 3. When the group met at Camp Taylor for its annual picnic, and no sooner had the smorgasbord been enticingly arranged, when the rains began to fall. Empty cake boxes and paper bags were hastily donned and fetchingly modeled to each other's amusement.

With the work all done in preparation for the 60th annual Grape Festival on Saturday, Oct. 3, chatty little groups huddled under the trees, reviewing the successes of the year: the work-group at various homes; the party for the husbands; the fashioning of a ribbon knit dress by Mrs. Harry Duncan; the tea given by Mrs. Ray Mill- ner retiring president.

Those attending the surprise shower were Mesdames Rex Brunings, Frank Covan, Walter Bogel, William Dumont, Frank Duncan, Lynn Frisbee, Edward Grattonik, Irving Harris, Jack Heidelberg, Corwin Hinshaw, Earl Homan, Edward Little, Robin McCrea, Ray Millner, Claire Mosher, Donham Owen, Britton Rey, Marcel Rosenstein, Walter Simi, Herbert Spilman, Leonard Von Schultheis, Arthur Wayne, Lawrence Wilson and Miss Ludovica Bigelow. And guests Mesdames William Ferguson, Robert Lewis, John Omizolo of Belvedere and Mrs. David Ausland of Sleepy Hollow.

The report of the nominating committee was read and voted to office of president, secretary and treasurer for the forthcoming year are Mesdames Herbert Spilman, Edward Little and Walter Simi.

Tennis Club Has Poolside Fashion Show

A warm, sunny afternoon contributed to the success of the Mill Valley Tennis Club's poolside fashion tea Tuesday that was attended by almost 100 members and guests.

Mrs. Jack Murphy was coordinator for the showing of the new fall styles provided by a Marin shop, with Mrs. Edwin Cechettini doing the commentary.

Electric blue, one of the season's predominant colors, was shown to advantage by Mrs. Eugene Crawford in a matching skirt and sweater set, topped by a short white leather coat.

Mrs. Frank Schroeder looked stunning as she modeled a silk print dress and coat of the same blue as that in the print, and electric blue was also the color of the satin cocktail dress worn by Mrs. Jack Creighton.

Carmel, gold and mustard also seemed to be favorite colors. Showing a gold ensemble was Mrs. David Stephens in a smart wool sheath with matching three-quarter length coat.

Mrs. William Barber looked pert and pretty in gray wool jersey capri pants, mustard printed shirt and red weskit "Tea-time" was the name of a chic Hawaiian lounging costume modeled by Mrs. Alfred Rider, and becoming to Mrs. Lloyd Postel was a black and white checked jacket dress.

Unique for at-home wear was a charming kilt set worn by Mrs. Bartlett Grimes consisting of a plaid skirt and sleeveless jerkin, matching tamoshanter and long red stockings.

For the very young Miss Stephanie Wickham modeled a bouffant nylon formal in white with black polka dots, accented with black velvet spaghetti straps and tie around the waist. Following the fashion parade tea was served under the direction of Mrs. Jack Younger and Mrs. Donald Harper, and pouring were Mesdames P. T. Smith, Jack Hughes, Stewart Bostwick and Russell Mills.

Larkspur Bethel Has Inspection, Initiation Night

Bethel 246, International Order of Jobs Daughters, Larkspur, recently held its inspection and initiation night with honored queen Ruth Smith presiding.

Escorted to the East were Sue Reed, junior past honored queen of Bethel 246; Mrs. Angie Goulder, supreme junior custodian, junior past grand guardian to the state of California, past guardian of Bethel 48, San Rafael, and grand deputy guardian; Mrs. Murial Jochish, guardian of Bethel 246; and William Reed, associate guardian of Bethel 246; and Mr. Rowse, past worshipful master of Marin Lodge 191, and inspector of District 314 of F & AM.

Initiated were Carol Smith, Suzette Zuppo, Carol Berry, Pamela Higgins and Dorrie Ericson.

During the business meeting members were told of a slumber party to be held at the home of Dawn Urbais. The girls planned a bowling party to follow the slumber party.

Mrs. Goulder told members that they had passed their inspection and explained the education and scholarship fund for the benefit of the new girls.

Refreshments were served by Carolyn Sattui and her committee and entertainment was provided by Dora Farr and her committee.

Workshops Planned
By CCPT Committee

One of the least publicized and yet important services of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers is the opportunity it offers men and women to assume increasingly vital positions of leadership in Parent-Teacher work, thereby augmenting their usefulness to the cause of child welfare and to their country. To reach this goal, regional conferences will be held in three areas of the state between Sept. 28 and Oct. 20, states Mrs. Frank J. Snowden of Alhambra, state president.

Regional workshops are planned to help district officers and chairmen and council presidents to assume their role of leadership by giving useful information to aid them in training council and unit leaders.

P-TA members from northern California will gather at Richardson Springs Oct. 5, 6, and 7 to attend one of the two-day meetings. Mrs. W. W. Wood of Marysville, assisted by Mrs. Thomas E. Lawsen of Sacramento, serve as plannees for these groups.

Oct. 19 and 20 are dates set for workshops at Asilomar where leaders from the Bay Area will join from the San Joaquin Valley to take advantage of leadership training sessions. Mrs. Morris Laderman of San Francisco and Mrs. R. J. Matheison of Hayward worked with this local committee.

BARBARA GREENE WILL MARRY
JOHN W. METZLER IN JANUARY

Mrs. Merle Greene of Kentfield announced the engagement of her daughter, Barbara Merle Greene, to John Wilbourne Metzler at a cocktail party yesterday afternoon.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin and is now attending the University of California at Berkeley. Barbara is a member of Job's Daughters and while at the College of Marin was a member of Semantor Gelanes and Alpha Gamma Sigma. This summer she was a counselor in charge of arts and crafts at the Montecito Sequoia Camp for Girls at Santa Barbara.

She has one brother, David, a senior at Redwood High School. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Darrell Irving McCann of Kentfield and Seattle and the late Mr. McCann and the granddaughter of Mrs. Inslee Blair Greene of Seattle and the late Dr. Greene.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzler of San Quentin and has two sisters, Cathy, a freshman at the College of Marin and Chris, a junior at San Rafael High School, and a brother Bill, who is with the U.S. Navy in Saipan. Jack is also a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin and is a senior on the Berkeley campus studying electrical engineering. He has spent four years with the Navy as an electronics technician.

He is the grandson of Mrs. F. T. McAbee and the late Mr. McAbee of Boonsville, Calif.

Plans are being made for a January wedding. The young couple will reside in Berkeley and continue their studies at the University of California.

Brebners Present Play Reading At Club Guest Day

John and Ann Brebner held their audience in suspense as they portrayed four characters in a mystery play for the Outdoor Art Club's guest day program Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. I. Dennis, program chairman, introduced the Brebners, formerly with the Old Vic Theater in London, who are now active in little theater work in Sausalito.

Mrs. Brebner played the parts of a dour Scotch housekeeper and a young secretary-companion, and her husband portrayed a Scotland Yard man and the schoolmaster husband of a wealthy invalid who had just died. The plot centered around the cause of her death. Characters and situations were skillfully delineated.

During the business meeting conducted by president Mrs. R. B. Hartman it was announced that Dr. P. R. Danford had been named by the Outdoor Art Club as a delegate to the White Conference on Youth, and that money had been placed in a new piano fund as a memorial to the late Mrs. P. A. Stang, a member.

Bayberry, hydrangeas and maple foliage were used to decorate the clubhouse and tea tables by Mrs. Samuel Seifert and Mrs. H. C. Kellers, and tea was served by Mrs. Robert S. Elliott, assisted by Mesdames Julian Rice, Robert Scott and Harold Muller.

Mrs. T. L. Harris and Mrs. W. O. Perkins greeted guests at the door, and ways and means chairman Mrs. Earle Marsh took reservations for the club's Oct. 15 Harvest Bounty Luncheon.

STIFF TREATMENT

Celluloid collars and cuffs were worn as a preventive against all sorts of diseases. Of course, we know better nowadays. In recent years, medical research has exploded a whole series of such fallacies. We are now living in the healthiest era the world has ever known. Every day medical science makes advances toward preventing disease . . . alleviating suffering . . . prolonging human life. When you are ill, take advantage of these new effective treatments by seeing your physician. Then, should he recommend medication, we'll be glad to fill his prescription promptly and carefully.

WALTZ PRINCE, PRINCESS TO BE CHOSEN AT CONTINENTAL CAPERS

With "Continental Capers" as its theme, and the Corinthian Yacht Club its locale, the Fifth Annual Ball of St. Stephen's Guild will be held this year Saturday, Oct. 10.

Decorations will include a wishing-well pool. Dancing will start at 10 p. m. and strolling violinist Hugo Rinaldi will serenade the guests. During the evening a Waltz Prince and Princess will be selected by a committee of judges headed by Mrs. Dan Bonfigli of Seafirth (Dorris Carr of television fame). Trophies will be presented to the most graceful dancers.

Chairman Mrs. Robert Wineman will be assisted by Mesdames John Flint, Marvin Field, Sam Mercer, George and Christopher Rivers Jr., who are planning the transformation of the Yacht Club into a garden solarium with a Continental flavor.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Flint in Belvedere.

Gifts Continue
To Be Received
At Marin General

Gifts continue to be received by the Pink Ladies of Marin General Hospital, and pediatricians received their welcome share. Bean Bags covered with flowered material were made by Brownie Troop 237, fourth graders of the Sun Valley School in San Rafael. Mrs. Steve Leggett heads this group of active girls.

They are Shari Leggett, Joyce De Pietro, Barbara Cohen, Monica Halloran, Jeanette Burmester, Carol Wilson, Janis Pieri, Marilyn Burtis, Sally Rossi. The same group was given a conducted tour of the hospital by Mrs. John O'Connell.

Long playing records and games delivered by Mrs. Gordon Rodgers, Service chairman of the X'Alpha Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, were put in use immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Carroll Tornroth gifted pediatrics with toys; while the Primary division of the Methodist Vacation Bible School in Mill Valley sent cloth puppets to amuse the children.

Reading was not neglected last month, for Kurt Wisecarver of San Rafael and Mrs. Walter del Tredici of San Anselmo continued to make frequent donations of comic books which fill long hours for the small patients.

Music Teachers
Assn. Announces

Classics Of Auto World From 1906 To Present Shown At Concours d'Elegance

By RANDALL GOULD

A panorama of distinguished personal transportation, old and new, unrolled across Forest Meadows of Dominican College in San Rafael yesterday as a Concours d'Elegance.

Sponsoring the display of antique, vintage, classic, sports and other automobiles was the Catholic Social Service of Marin, in cooperation with the Sports Car Club, San Francisco Region, and the Horseless Carriage Club of America, San Rafael Region.

More than 50 vehicles, ranging from two 1906 passenger cars to a new imported Italian 12-cylindered racer, rolled through the gates to be ranged about the spacious grounds.

With 13 classes provided, most of the entrants departed with trophies or dash plaques after a showing from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A staff of judges awarded points for appearance and condition of engine, chassis and running gear, with extra bonus for high mileage.

An afternoon program of entertainment in an open-air auditorium preceded the awards, a leading feature including a fashion show of antique costumes keyed to the atmosphere created by the elderly cars.

Several real collector's items were on view, including a lean little 1927 "35 C" Bugatti Grand Prix speedster with supercharged straight-eight powerplant, owned by Dr. George Kerrigan of Orinda. Exports noted the famed Bugatti tubular front axle drilled to include front springs, also Bugatti's unusual carved-metal wheels.

In luxurious contrast stood a 12-cylindered Phantom III Rolls Royce of 1939 with J. Gueney Nutting sports salon body, one of the last to be delivered before outbreak of World War II and then costing close to $24,000. It was one of three of the make owned by Harold S. Davis of Atherton.

Beside it stood a stately sample of departed magnificence in American car building, a Pierce-Arrow, which in turn was flanked by a great Belgian Minerva—all of the "classic" period of fine car construction which started after one war and ended with the next.

In comical contrast was tiny "Miss Ann," a two-cylinder two-stroke English Berkeley sports car of 35 horsepower and front-wheel drive.

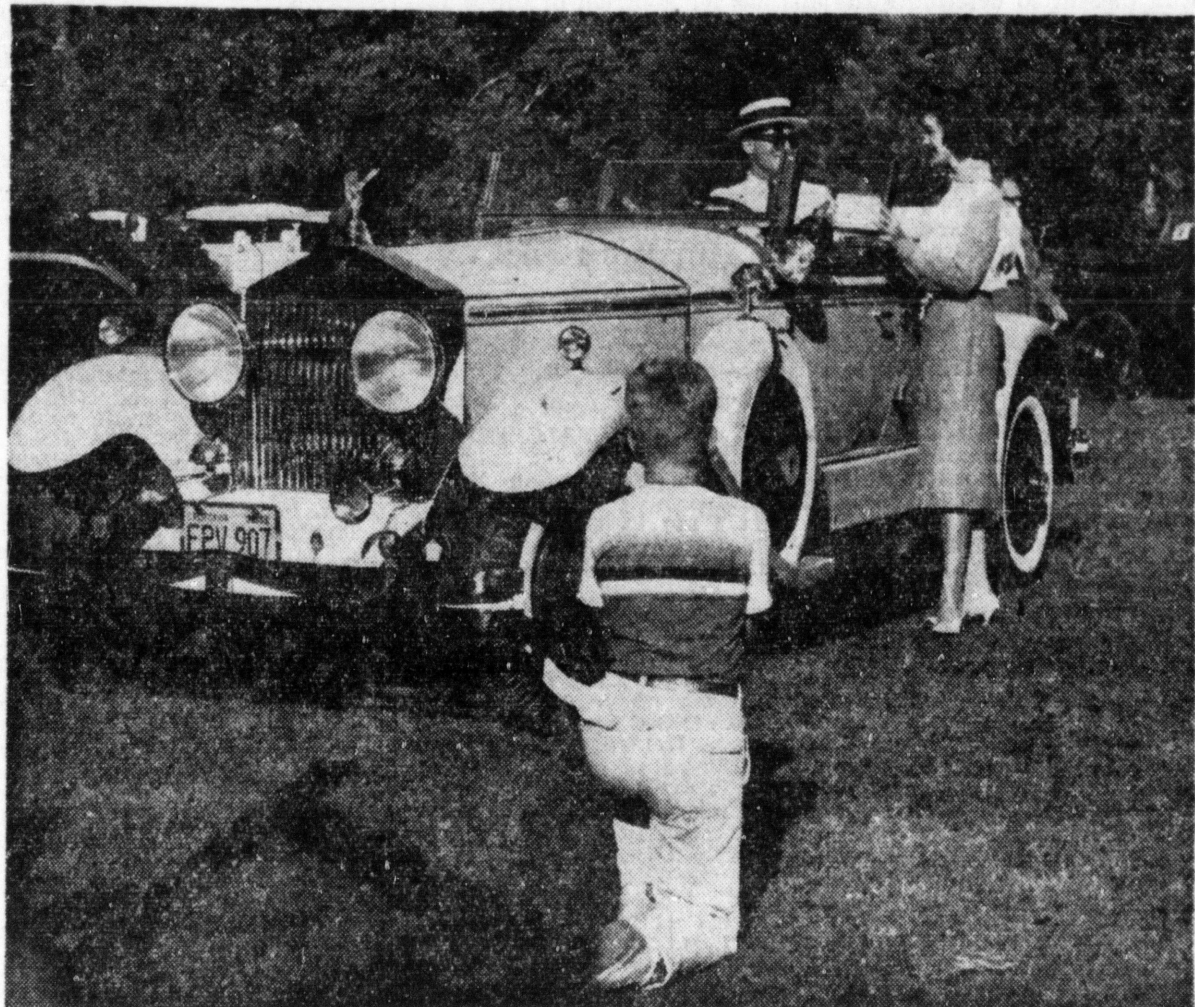

Near a flock of Model T Fords and some ancient Buicks, Reas and Franklins, two non-motorized fire engines stood on trailers, sent in from Santa Rosa and Napa.

General chairman was Earl Grady, backed by Rev. James D. O'Shea as director of Catholic Social Service of Marin. James R. Lowe as regional executive for SCCA acted as chairman for the sports car group, and Charles O. Jones was chairman for the horseless carriage section. Albert V. Martin is chairman of the board of Catholic Social Service.

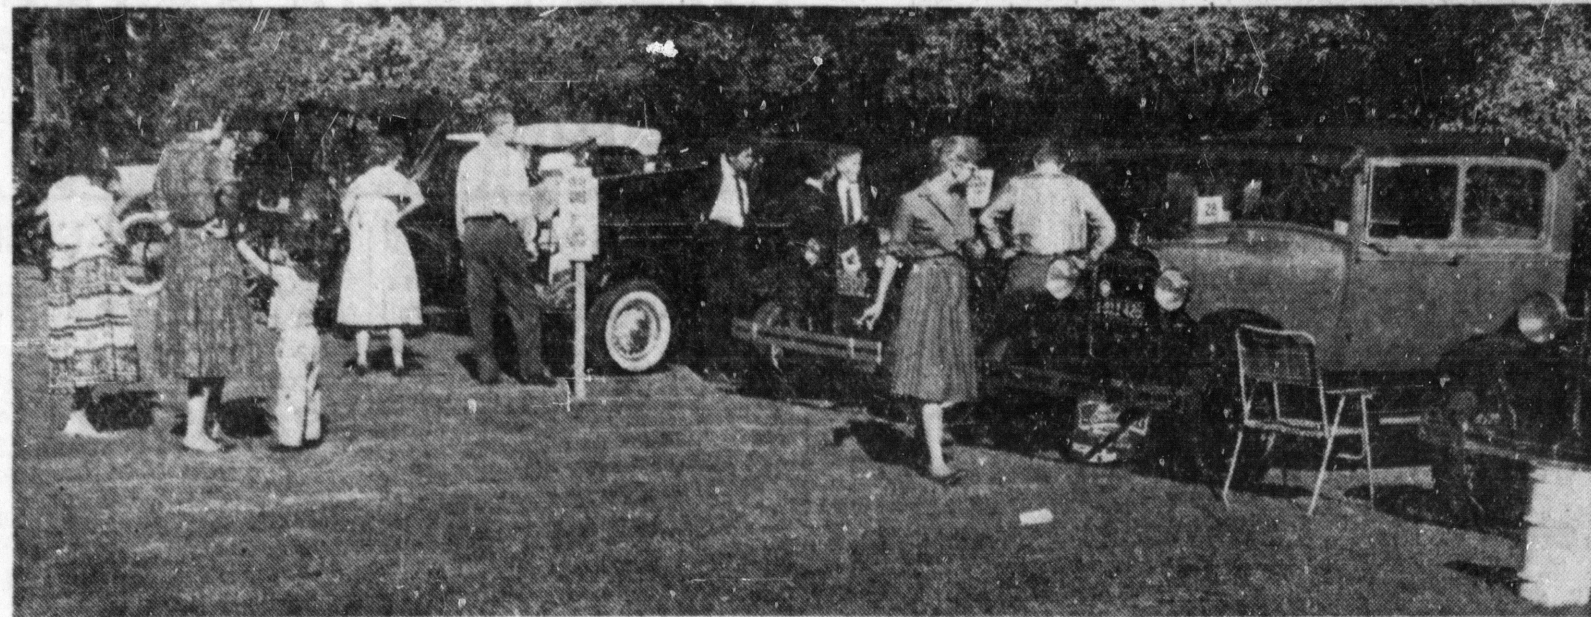

Lee Petersen served as concours chairman.

Boy, 9, Hurt In Auto-Bike Crash

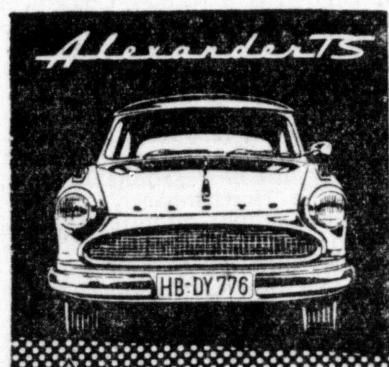

A 9-year-old Terra Linda boy was resting in Marin General Hospital today, the victim of head injuries suffered in an automobile-bicycle collision.

The California Highway Patrol said John Harris Jr. of 4 Wintergreen way was taken to the hospital after his bicycle collided with a car driven by Mrs. Joyce Davies Dresia, 43, of 107 Santa Margartia drive, San Rafael, at 10 a.m. Saturday at Las Collindas and Wintergreen way in Terra Linda. The hospital said young John's condition was "good."

Education Trends To Be Discussed

Ben Rust, a Richmond teacher, will report on "National Trends in Education" to the Marin County Federation of Teachers 1077 fall dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, in the Mission Inn Restaurant, San Rafael.

Rust has been president of the California Federation of Teachers for the past several years and was recently a delegate to the American Federation of Teachers annual convention. Jess Fisher of 77 Lincoln avenue, San Anselmo, is in charge of reservations.

Dealing With Dynamic Teen-Agers Keeps High School Principal Busy

Ever spend a day with a high school principal? I did recently. It was a big school. Talk about busy! Tell me, principals, how do you survive?

Teen-agers are dynamite. They're attractive. They're clever. They're busy. They're enthusiastic. They're ready to explode emotionally at the slightest provocation.

The principal is the head disciplinarian. He sees that the rules are obeyed. He keeps track of students' feelings. When he makes a mistake, things pop. I don't envy him.

High schools are changing fast. They're new courses, new buildings. New teachers. The principal must keep ahead of the procession. He must guide the changes. He is responsible for the improvement of instruction. He must know as much about teaching science as his science teachers. And as much about teaching auto shop as his auto shop instructors. He has to know about remedial reading for the retarded ones as well as speed reading for the gifted.

Counseling systems are becoming improved. Counselors are more important now than ever before. Who chooses them? Who sets up their jobs? Who's responsible for them? The principal, of course.

Most of all a high school principal is a fast-acting executive. He makes quick decisions all day. He must remember what worked before and what didn't. Usually he is allowed about one mistake a month. If very many of his decisions go sour, he gets the gate. He is looked to for leadership by pupils, teachers, parents, custodians, gardeners, cops, cafeteria workers, carpenters, electricians, plumbers. Each year we pile new responsibilities on him. We never give him the help he needs. No wonder he's rushed.

READERS' FORUM
(Q) "What proportion of our American children graduate from high school?"

P.C.W.
(A) It varies from city to city and neighborhood to neighborhood. In some places, as many as 85 per cent graduate. In other places, fewer than 50 per cent. The national average is about 66 2/3 per cent.

George Washington said: "There can be no greater error than to expect or calculate upon real favors from nation to nation."

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Ex-First Lady Honored

BEVERLY HILLS (UPI)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was honored last night at a $100-a-plate diamond jubilee banquet attended by 1,500 leading figures in the business, entertainment and political worlds.

Proceeds from the dinner at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, combined with cash contributions and pledges, resulted in some $350,000 being raised for the new Eleanor Roosevelt Institute for Cancer Research, which will be built in Denver, Colo.

Most of all a high school principal is a fast-acting executive. He makes quick decisions all day. He must remember what worked before and what didn't. Usually he is allowed about one mistake a month. If very many of his decisions go sour, he gets the gate. He is looked to for leadership by pupils, teachers, parents, custodians, gardeners, cops, cafeteria workers, carpenters, electricians, plumbers. Each year we pile new responsibilities on him. We never give him the help he needs. No wonder he's rushed.

Photographs Earth

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Space scientists disclosed today that America's paddlewheel satellite has taken television pictures of the earth from an altitude of 17,000 miles.

It was the first crude image of the earth and its cloud cover ever taken from space.

Fatal Bus Wreck

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A Greyhound bus with 18 passengers aboard skidded into a power pole yesterday, killing a Texas woman and injuring 12 persons, including her young son.

2 Killed In Sea Crash

SEATTLE (UPI)—Two Seattle men lost their lives when a freighter knifed out of the fog and through their halibut boat off the entrance to the Strait of Juan de Fuca yesterday.

Three crewmen of the 56-foot fishing boat Jane were pulled from the water as she sank four miles northwest of Tatoosh Island. The Jane was struck by the Moore-McCormack Lines freighter Mormacpine which was about to enter the channel that separates Washington state from Canada's Vancouver Island.

Famed Dog Killed

TULSO, Okla. (AP)—Little Richard, the country hound-dog celebrated for his coon chasing, couldn't make a go of it in the city.

Richard's owner, Larry Wilson, said the dog was found dead yesterday, victim of an auto.

For six days last spring rescue workers chipped away at a rocky crevice north of here where Little Richard had entombed himself while chasing a coon and the dog was a national celebrity.

Wilson and the dog moved here after his last-minute rescue.

Rebels Driven Back

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Government troops have driven pro-Communist rebels across the Nam Ma River in northern Laos, five miles from the border of Communist North Viet Nam, a pilot reported today.

A pilot who carried military supplies to the north said that three days ago government forces, after little rebel resistance, recaptured the town of Muong Hoi, 30 miles north of the royal army's headquarters at Sam Neua and only five miles from the frontier.

Sharks Attack Deer

MALIBU (UPI)—A terrified doe, attacked by a pair of sharks two miles at sea, was rescued yesterday by three fishermen who had to chase her three miles and lasso her.

The deer apparently wandered into the ocean from nearby wooded hill areas and was unable to return to shore. Barney Blattman, of Los Angeles, his wife and her brother, Donald Miller, of Azusa saw the doe being pursued by the sharks when they were two miles offshore.

POWER TOO CENTRALIZED

Leake Blasts Planned State Reorganization

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The state's chief tax collector today resumed his attack on a governmental reorganization plan that would eliminate his elective position as Board of Equalization chairman.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the County Assessors Assn., Democrat Paul R. Leake warned that a proposed "super colossal" revenue department could "sabotage the people's precious right of suffrage."

Under the plan submitted by a governor's committee headed by former Finance Director Bert Levis, the finance agency, as one of eight major agencies, would absorb the five-man Board of Equalization.

An expansion of the present finance department, it would also replace two other elective posts—treasurer and secretary of state—and take on most state monetary functions, as well as those dealing with elections and civil service.

Leake spoke out against giving more power to the finance department, "already criticized as a colossus, with its feet planted firmly on the necks of all government departments."

He said the plan is part of a trend to appointive rather

Fumes Peril Ukiah

UKIAH (AP)—Chlorine fumes from a leaking industrial tank were blown over Ukiah's northern residence area last night. More than a hundred homes were evacuated during an hour and a half community alert.

Wind blew the gas from a manufacturing plant over the city's northern section and into mountain areas beyond.

The leak was sealed quickly after it was reported.

Star's Mother Dies

BEVERLY HILLS (AP)—Helen Broderick Crawford, 68, former actress, Broadway and vaudeville star and mother of actor Broderick Crawford, died Friday.

LAW IN ACTION

What Landlord Can Do If Tenant Won't Move Out

(This column, prepared by California attorneys so you may know more about our laws, appears regularly in the Independent-Journal.)

In an "unlawful detainer" action a landlord seeks to get back property he has rented out. It is well just to try to persuade a tenant to move out, but some won't go without a court order.

The landlord may try an unlawful detainer action to get back his place and collect his rent. For, as a rule, the law does not allow the landlord himself forcibly to put a tenant out.

Such a suit starts when the tenant has broken the terms of his contract, for example, when he fails to pay his rent or stays on after his lease runs out.

How does the landlord bring such an action? First he notifies the tenant to leave. If he does not, the landlord next files a complaint in court and serves the papers. The tenant then has three days to reply.

How does the tenant defend such a suit, for he may have been in the right?

By showing that he did not break the terms of the lease. He may claim, for example, the landlord renewed the lease or waived the rent.

If the landlord wins he may get damages for his loss of possession, perhaps even treble damages and rent for the

Five Lectures On Tap For New Audubon Series

Five of America's foremost wildlife photographer-lecturers will present programs during the 1959-60 Audubon Screen Tour series at the College of Marin in Kentfield.

Offered by the National Audubon Society, oldest and largest conservation organization in the U.S., the series is sponsored locally by the College of Marin Adult School.

Laurel Reynolds of Piedmont will present his film, "The New World Rediscovered," at the first program Oct. 6 at 8 p.m. in Olney Hall on the Kentfield campus.

Reynolds has journeyed over a large part of the Western Hemisphere, filming the natural world as he believes it appeared centuries ago to New World explorers.

Subsequent lecturers will be Emerson Scott, "Rocky Mountain Rambles," Oct. 30; Howard L. Orrian, "The Land the Glaciers Forgot," Jan. 23;

Guide Dogs Reunion Set Saturday

Almost 100 graduates of Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., whose enrollment comes from the 24 western states and Canada, will return to the school in San Rafael, Saturday for the annual student reunion.

The alumni secretary, Mrs. Maxine Peck, and Ida, her German Shepherd partner, of San Francisco will open the day-long meeting at 10 a.m. First on the program will be a discussion on job accomplishments and employment possibilities for the blind.

After lunch guests will be given an opportunity to demonstrate, either verbally or physically, what they've done with the training they received at Guide Dogs for the Blind.

More than half the guests have signed up for an obstacle race which is scheduled for 2 p.m. Starting at Fourth and D streets in downtown San Rafael, the sidewalk for two blocks will be haphazardly littered with bikes, saw horses, tire tubes and pans of water. Eight licensed trainers will keep score. Prizes will be given for teamwork: the ease with which each pair avoids the obstacles; the way the dog passes strategically placed cats and the manner in which each contestant gives hand and voice commands to his Guide Dog.

While this race is taking place, the "arm chair specialists" will remain on the campus to participate in the "Believe It or Not" contest. Here the contestants will tell the unusual feats of their Guide Dogs. This prize, a large white bone tied in a pink ribbon, will go to the animal whose actions inspired the most unusual tale.

Seven other Sonoma County youths, suspected of participating in the gang beating, are charged with misdemeanor assault. They are scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Friday afternoon to have a trial date set.

2 Eagle Badges To Be Awarded

Bill Nelson of Convent Court and Robert Hamm of Rafael drive, San Rafael, will receive the Eagle Badge at the Eagle Scout award program of Troop 36, Boy Scouts of America, Thursday night at the Marin Museum, Albert Field.

The event will be the second Eagle Scout night held by the troop since its organization three years ago. Robert Hamm will be the second son in his family to receive the award. His father also holds the Eagle Badge.

Relatives, friends and members of Pack 36, Cub Scouts, have been invited to the ceremonies.

School Unit On Philosophy Will Meet

The first meeting for 1959-60 of the joint community-school philosophy of education committee for the Tamalpais Union High School District will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the district office in Larkspur.

Robert D. Torrey, director of instruction and personnel and committee chairman, said reactions from a working draft of the district's statement of philosophy submitted to other groups for study and suggestion will be discussed. Groups included teachers and board members.

The committee is composed of parents, teachers and administrators. Members are Miss Maurine Ballard, Jack Craemer, Mrs. S. M. Dorinson, Norman N. Goldstein, Mrs. Kathryn Martin, Bruce McCoy, Robert Prather and Mrs. Frank Solinsky.

"The administration and board is very interested in this study," Supt. Chester G. Carlisle said, "because it reflects an important effort by one of our committees to improve the educational program."

2 Eagle Badges To Be Awarded

Bill Nelson of Convent Court and Robert Hamm of Rafael drive, San Rafael, will receive the Eagle Badge at the Eagle Scout award program of Troop 36, Boy Scouts of America, Thursday night at the Marin Museum, Albert Field.

The event will be the second Eagle Scout night held by the troop since its organization three years ago. Robert Hamm will be the second son in his family to receive the award. His father also holds the Eagle Badge.

Relatives, friends and members of Pack 36, Cub Scouts, have been invited to the ceremonies.
